Segretti Testifies Before Watergate Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Political saboteur Donald H. Segretti today listed for the Senate Watergate committee the tricks he pulled on Democrats last year and publicly apologized for his activities. They were "wrong and have no place in the American political system," Segretti said.

The California lawyer said he was recruited for his trickery by former White House aides Dwight L. Chapin and Gordon Strachan and paid a salary of $16,000 yearly and about $40,000 in expenses by Herbert W. Kalmbach, President Nixon's onetime personal lawyer.

Segretti testified that his activities during the 1972 Florida primary including distribution of a phony letter on campaign stationery of Sen. Edmund S. Muskie that accused two other Democratic presidential candidates of sexual misconduct.

He pleaded guilty in federal court Monday to three misdemeanor counts in connection with the political sabotage he undertook in the Florida primary.

Segretti said the letter on the stationery of the Maine senator was his own idea, not prompted by any other person. "It was not my desire to have anyone believe the letter, but, instead, it was intended to create confusion among the various candidates," Segretti said.

He said he wished "to apologize publicly for this stupid act."

Segretti said he recruited assistants around the country to picket various Democratic candidates, "recruit persons to ask hard questions at news conferences and to obtain the travel schedules of the various Democratic candidates."

He asked that the committee not compel him to name publicly all of the people he recruited. "Most of these persons are completely innocent of any wrongdoing," Segretti said.

Declaring that his activities "have been blown out of all proportion by the news media," Segretti said his pranks included:

—Sending a letter on Muskie stationery "alleging unauthorized use of government typewriters by his staff."

—Placing of stink bombs at a Muskie picnic and at Muskie headquarters in Florida.

—Placing classified ads asking Muskie if he would "accept a Jewish running mate," a reference to the senator's statement that a black vice presidential candidate should not be nominated by Democrats in 1972.

—Distribution of fliers inviting the public to a nonexistent open house at Muskie's Miami headquarters.

—Distribution of fliers in Milwaukee on April Fool's Day advertising "a free all-you-can-eat lunch with drinks at Hubert Humphrey's headquarters." The Minnesota senator was another candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Two of the men Segretti identified as helping him are Robert M. Benz and Douglas Kelly, who are scheduled to testify before the committee Thursday. Benz was a Florida Young Republican leader and was an indicted co-conspirator in the federal government's case against Segretti.

At one point, Segretti said, he and Kelly arranged for a small plane to fly over the Democratic National Convention Center in Miami Beach with a trailer saying, "Peace, Pot, Promiscuity, Vote McGovern."

That Segretti said, was his last political activity of the 1972 campaign.

The opening of Segretti's testimony was delayed for a minute or so when a woman in the audience caused a disturbance. She was quickly escorted out of the Senate hearing room by Capitol policemen.

Bomb Threat At Capitol

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Watergate hearings were abruptly adjourned for two hours today to permit police to search the hearing room for a bomb.

Capitol police received a bomb scare call telling them that a bomb had been placed in the Caucus Room of one of the House office buildings. That room was searched, and no bomb was found.

The police, concerned that there might have been some misunderstanding, told Watergate committee chairman Sam J. Ervin Jr., that they would like to search his room as well, the Caucus Room of the Old Senate Office Building.

Ervin conferred with other members of the committee while political saboteur Donald H. Segretti was testifying. As a live quorum call was announced on the Senate floor, Ervin announced an unexpected two-hour recess which he told reporters was "very much against my will."

The packed hearing room was cleared and a search was launched.

Outcry Grows Over Tests On Beagles

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American public has sent up a howl of protest over proposed military experiments that would subject hundreds of beagle puppies to poisonous fumes.

Rep. Les Aspin, D-Wis., started the controversy in July by disclosing that the Air Force was planning to de-bark 200 young beagles and force them to breathe aviation fumes. Since then, Aspin aides say, they've gotten thousands of letters, "more than we get on any other subject."

The number is sure to grow after Aspin's latest revelation that the Army is purchasing 400 pups for poison gas testing.

A 13-year-old girl from Cary, N.C., wrote Rep. Gerry E. Studds, D-Mass., what she would like to tell the Air Force: "Because of your pig-headed, stupid and idiotic mind you will probably cause the death of many beautiful, innocent dogs."

She added a rather indelicate reference to what she would like the puppies—all 200 of them—to do on the Air Force's front porch.

A 15-year-old boy in Chicago painstakingly typed a letter to Studds asking, "What would they do if there wasn't no dogs, would they kill humans?" He attached a postscript, "Excuse my typing, it is my second time."

Air Force Secretary John L. McLucas is now the target of petitions from the Animal Protection Institute of America and other organizations.

Ohio Solons Study 2 Sets Of Campaign Spending Reforms

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two sets of campaign financing reforms go before a bipartisan legislative committee today in hopes an agreement can be reached for a special session of the legislature.

Gov. John J. Gilligan unveiled his long-awaited proposals Tuesday, and they were similar to those of a six-member subcommittee which concluded its deliberations last week.

Sen. Stanley J. Aronoff, R-8 Cincinnati, is chairman of the 14-member Legislative Service Commission committee named at Gilligan's request to try to come up with an agreed bill. It consists of seven Republicans and seven Democrats.

Aronoff named the subcommittee of three Democrats and three Republicans Sept. 28 after Gilligan set the special session for the week of Oct. 22 and listed campaign financing and election reform as top priorities.

The extraordinary session may consider only those things set forth in the governor's official proclamation for the special session. It is expected in a few days.

Gilligan's recommendations, speculated over since he announced the special session three weeks ago, place what he called "long needed controls" on campaign contributions and expenditures. He said Tuesday their enactment would be a "major step forward in the fight to restore the confidence of the people of this state in their public officials and candidates for public office."

Sen. Paul R. Matia, R-28 Westlake, chairman of the subcommittee, is submitting basically the same "principles" as those contained in the Gilligan bill but the senator said the subcommittee proposes legislation "much more comprehensive" than the governor's.

Both sets of proposals are about the same in restricting the amount candidates may spend for office, the amounts individuals and organizations may give to parties and candidates, and requiring that expenditures be authorized by a single committee or treasurer. There are key differences, however.

Matia's subcommittee proposed that contributions coming from an individual, organization, or association, and going to a political candidate may not exceed $3,000 in any election.

The Gilligan proposal would do the same thing, but provide that organizations and associations would be exempt from the $3,000 limit if the funds represent contributions from members contributing no more than $10 each.

Gilligan said the exemption is designed "to encourage small contributors to become involved in the election process." Matia said he saw the exemption as a "huge loophole" that "obviously is in there to take care of the governor."

The subcommittee would allow organizations and associations to exceed the $3,000 limitation only if members were allowed to earmark their donation for a party or candidate of their choice. Gilligan would provide that no contributions could be spent for the party or candidate of an organization's policy choice, said Robert Tenenbaum, Gilligan's press secretary.

Besides that difference, there were at least two other areas which Matia said Gilligan neglected. These would outlaw political kickbacks from auto license registrars and package store liquor operators and guard against public employee "slush" funds.

The senator said, however, that despite the differences he feels there is room for negotiations and that "there is a good chance for some very drastic reforms."

Gilligan might be expected to get about what he asks from the Democratic-controlled House, but doubtless will have to make some concessions in the Republican-controlled Senate.

Here are the similarities of the Gilligan and Matia proposals:

—Both would require a single committee to make expenditures, except Gilligan would further restrict it to a designated treasurer who would be personally liable for irregularities. Matia would restrict the receipt of contributions to the same committee. Gilligan would allow regional committees to receive funds only.

—Each candidate would have to appoint a campaign treasurer, except the governor's bill would allow a candidate who plans to spend less than $500 to name himself treasurer.

—Contributions by a candidate, any individual, or any organization to a candidate would be limited to $3,000 at any election. There would be no limit to contributions to a party under Matia's proposal. Gilligan would limit party contributions to $3,000 a calendar year.

—Campaign committees would be limited as follows:

For governor, the subcommittee would set the limit at 10 cents per Ohio resident for both the primary and general election, or about $2.2 million in 1974. Gilligan would permit spending of 10 cents for a general election, but only five cents for primaries for a total of $1.6 million.

For other state-wide offices, the subcommittee recommends 1½ cents per resident, or about $150,000 in each election with a $300,000 total. The governor recommends two cents a voter in each election for a $400,000 total.

Both the subcommittee and Gilligan arrived at comparable limits on candidates for district and local offices. An average candidate for state representative, for instance, would be allowed to spend a total of no more than about $16,000 in both elections. The subcommittee provided more detailed recommendations, with separate figures for candidates for the judiciary.

Candidates for the Ohio Supreme Court, who would come under those from statewide office in Gilligan's bill, could spend a total of $50,000 under the subcommittee proposal.

Otherwise, both provide for pre-election filing of expenses and contributions to disclose sources received late in the campaign.

Gilligan would require statements to be filed 40 days before, 10 days before, and 60 days after any election, with the same office at which a candidate filed his petitions.

The Matia group would require filing as of the close of business on the 15th day preceding an election, and 45 days after.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

Mayor Barnhill noted last night that "Pumpkin Show Fever" is beginning to affect the citizens of the city.

Fire Chief Bernard Wolfe reported that as far as he could determine, open fires for cooking purposes, heating of tar and to provide warmth for construction workers are the only burning permitted within the city under new Environmental Protection Agency rules. He said he had no idea who was to enforce regulations but plans to attend a meeting Oct. 9 where the rules will be clarified.

Councilman David Goldschmidt noted it is time the finance committee began working on the annual budget. He asked the heads of council committees to meet with departmental heads to go over the proposed budgets of the various departments. Councilman David Crawford will meet with service director Atwood Jones and public utilities director Charles Taylor to review those budgets.

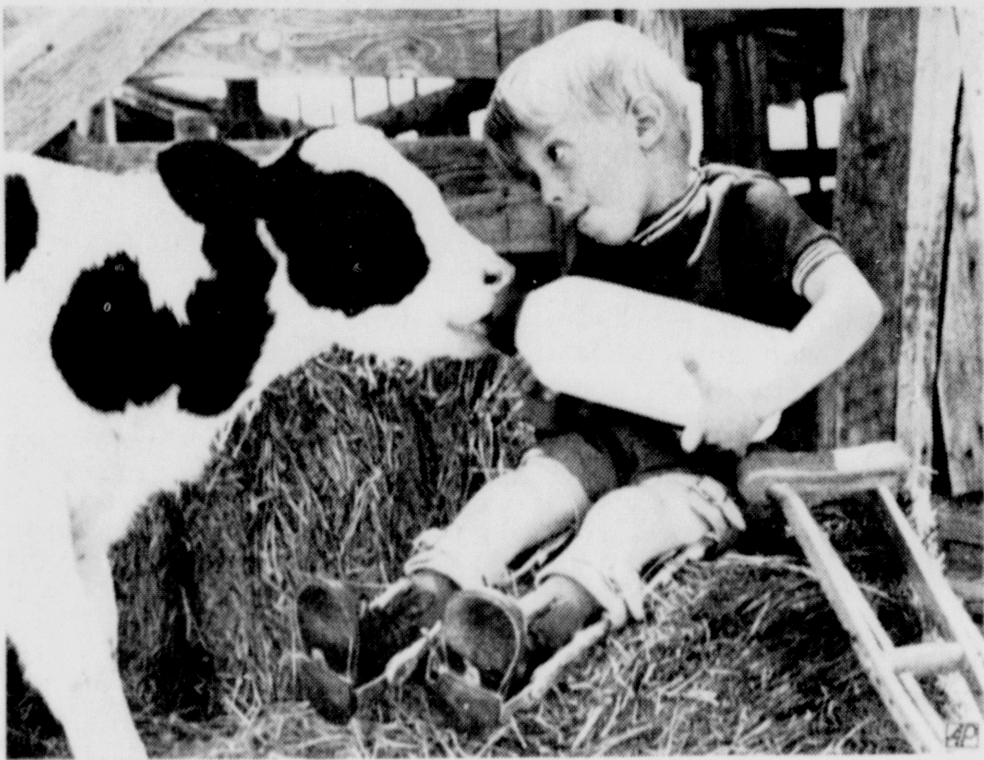

Councilman Kenworthy will meet with safety director Ed Ebert to review the budgets for the health, police and fire departments.

Their findings and recommendations will then be presented to Goldschmidt and his finance committee for study. Hopefully, the 1974 budget will be ready for passage prior to or by the last meeting in December. Last year payment of salaries was delayed because the budget failed to gain council approval before the new year began.

Public utilities director Taylor announced a meeting has been scheduled next Tuesday with engineers from Hazen and Swayer to discuss how to reduce the cost of the sewage disposal plant.

MODERN ARMCHAIRS ARE 'VINYL RESTING PLACES'

Circleville City Council meeting Tuesday was preceded by a public hearing on rezoning 36-acre vacant tract between Nicholas drive and Pontius Lane.

Richard Gerhardt has requested the rezoning to PUD (planned unit development). The development will be known as Rustic Ridge. One of the requirements of PUD is that open space and recreation area must be provided.

The development will include an area for neighborhood business, an office complex, apartments, townhouses, condominiums, single family and two family residents, housing for the elderly and a community center with swimming pool and tennis courts.

The land is bounded on the east by Nicholas Drive, the north by a tract of land owned by C. F. Replogle, on the west by land owned by John W. Eshelman Jr. and on the south by the Brinks Addition and vacant land. The tract, as undeveloped land in the city, is zoned R-2 (residential). Designers of Rustic Ridge are Schooley Cornelius Associates.

The developers are Circle G Corporation, a local company of which Gerhardt is president, and Buckeye Service Corporation, the developing wing of Buckeye Savings and Loan of Columbus.

The lone objections to the project were voiced by Replogle and Eshelman. Replogle said he could see nothing wrong with the development but stated he felt he had not been kept properly informed during planning stages since it will have a definite effect on development of his property.

Eshelman asked the planners consider relocating a street in the development. He said that if he should ever develop his property, the street would necessarily be through his choice residential lots.

Eshelman said he had no objection to the development itself. A meeting of the city Planning and Zoning Commission, Gerhardt, Eshelman, Replogle and any other interested persons will be scheduled either Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

An ordinance to rezone the area from R-2 to PUD was held to a second reading after a motion by Councilman Robert Kenworthy to table it failed to gain enough votes for passage.

Mayor Frank Barnhill and Gerhardt both pointed out that if any changes were decided upon next week, the ordinance could be killed or amended at the Oct. 16 council meeting.

Kenworthy moved for tabling the ordinance stating he believed further study by planning and zoning should be made before council takes action.

The proposed development has been unanimously approved by the planning committee according to W. P. Yamarick, chairman of that board. It was first submitted to the boards' study in June, 1972.

The transfer of $925 from the general fund to the Ted Lewis Park fund to pay caretakers for the remainder of the season was approved Tuesday. The shortage in the caretaker salary fund occurred because weather conditions lengthened the park season this year. There are four caretakers for the city park system.

An ordinance creating the position of a parttime clerk in the Circleville Health Department and establishing her salary at $1.80 per hour was approved.

Mayor Barnhill said the new position in city government is being provided to relieve the workload on Mrs. Hattie Wallace, the health department clerk. Councilman Ben Gordon pointed out to council that Mrs. Wallace seldom took a vacation or day off from her post and she is the only person in the department with an understanding of the birth and death records required by the state.

An ordinance appropriating $430 from the general fund to the health department was approved. This money is needed to pay the parttime clerk for the remainder of the year.

A resolution authorizing the mayor and city auditor to execute releases for all claims against Buckeye Insurance Co. on the 1955 Seagraves fire truck destroyed in an accident March, 1971, was approved.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued to climb today as investors took cheer in lower interest rates and some signs the 1974 economy might not be as sluggish as expected.

The Dow Jones industrial average, which reached its highest point in more than five months Tuesday, was up 3.46 to 960.26 at noon.

Advances held a 2 to 1 edge over declines in heavy trading on the New York Stock Exchange. The Big Board's composite index of 1,500 common stocks was ahead .02 to 58.77.

On the American Stock Exchange the market-value index had risen .59 to 107.21.

Goodyear Tire, the Big Board's most-active issue, fell 3/4 to 23 1/2 after disclosing that 1973 earnings would be lower than last year's. IBM, which is appealing a multimillion-dollar antitrust judgement against it, slid 5/8 to 249 3/4 after a 69,900-share block traded at 249 1/2.

Lions Club Hears Farm Discussion

Walt Spangler, manager of the Agricultural Satbilization and Conservation Service in Circleville, was the main speaker at the Lions Club meeting Tuesday night at Wardell's Party Home.

Spangler told the group that the agriculture department is an old department in the United States, being founded during the administration of President Lincoln.

He noted that there has been a great change in farming during the past 40 years. Some of the changes mentioned by Spangler include the use of hybrid and certified seed, diesel tractors, selected breeds of beef and weed free fields.

Guests at the meeting were Jim Manns and Norman Coles of Toronto, Canada. Orville Jacobs was welcomed to the local club as a transfer from the Whitehall Lions Club.

Accident Under Investigation

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies Bill Dountz and Garry Betts are still investigating a two-car accident that occurred Wednesday at the intersection of U.S. Route 22 and State Route 104.

According to the report, a car driven by Evelyn Massie, 39, Route 1, Chillicothe was travelling east on Route 22 when Stephanie Neff, 18, Route 2, driving south on Route 104, stopped for the stop sign and then started through the intersection.

Miss Neff was taken to her family physician by her father.

Both cars were heavily damaged.

Deaths

MRS. IDA B. RADER

Mrs. Ida B. Rader, 86, formerly of 473 N. Pickaway St., died 5:40 a.m. Wednesday at Pickaway Manor. Arrangements are being completed by Defenbaugh-Wise-McCain Funeral Home.

MRS. RUTH I. CAMPBELL

Mrs. Ruth I. Campbell, 60, Hide-Away-Hills Lane, Lancaster, died 12:07 p.m. Tuesday at Doctors Hospital West, Columbus.

Born Feb. 28, 1913 in Pickaway County near East Ringgold, she was the daughter of Delno and Rose Bixler Miller.

She was a member of the Columba Heights United Methodist Church, Columbus and Order of the Easter Star, London.

Survivors include her husband, Joseph A. Campbell; one daughter, Mrs. William (Beverly) L. Six, Route 3; one son, Ronald L. Campbell, Brooklyn, Mich.; four grandchildren; two brothers, Lawrence Miller, Lancaster and Lewis Miller, Royalton; one sister, Mrs. Ernest (Mary Catherine) Karvwnaris, Syracuse, N.Y.; several nieces and nephews.

The funeral service will be 10:30 a.m. Friday in the chapel of the Frank E. Smith Funeral Home in Lancaster with the Rev. James K. Wagner officiating. Burial will be in Sunset Cemetery, Columbus.

Friends may call at the funeral home 7-9 p.m. Wednesday, 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Thursday.

Thieves Take Albums, Tapes

Thomas A. Eitel, Route 1, Williamsport, reported thieves broke into his house on Cochran Road between 11:45 a.m. and 6 p.m. Tuesday.

The culprits gained entrance to the house by using a hedge cutter to break out a bedroom window.

Missing from the residence were records and 8-track tapes, estimated to be worth $52.

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy James Deal investigated the incident.

New Citizens

County Divisions Begin Campaign

A two-way county campaign to attract funds that can be used to serve thousands of people through the ten agencies of the Community Fund has been announced by Robert G. Ogden, vice president and general drive chairman.

Campaign goal number one is headed by County West Division Chairman, Mrs. Nathan Wilson and County East Division Chairman, Mrs. D. Richard Wylie. This effort involves a number of volunteers who will be trying to reach county residents in door to door collections.

Campaign goal number two is directed to persons who live in this county but work in another county or city. The appeal to these people is for them to request their employers to provide payroll deduction privileges and that they instruct their employers to send their weekly, monthly or quarterly deductions directly to Mrs. Paul Bowman, treasurer, Pickaway County Community Fund, Savings Bank, 118 N. Court St.

As an aid to keeping track of pledges made, it would be helpful if those choosing to do this would send a note with their name, company and amount of their pledge to Robert G. Ogden, 556 N. Pickaway St.

It is not necessary for these people to wait for the United Way or other county campaigns to begin to make their pledge.

The Pickaway County Campaign is presently underway and support of it will help satisfy the needs of many people.

Cecil Sowers Listed As 'Satisfactory'

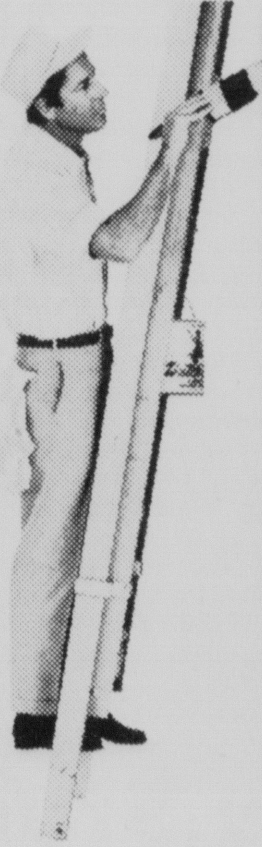

Cecil Sowers, 223 N. Washington, St., is listed in satisfactory condition Wednesday after having his right leg amputated three inches below the knee.

Sowers was working on a horse barn roof at Scioto Downs, Sept. 26 when he raised up touching electrical wires sending 5000 volts of electricity through his body.

He has severe electrical burns on his right temple and shoulder.

His room number is 868 at Mt. Carmel Hospital, West, Columbus.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued to climb today as investors took cheer in lower interest rates and some signs the 1974 economy might not be as sluggish as expected.

The Dow Jones industrial average, which reached its highest point in more than five months Tuesday, was up 3.46 to 960.26 at noon.

Advances held a 2 to 1 edge over declines in heavy trading on the New York Stock Exchange. The Big Board's composite index of 1,500 common stocks was ahead .02 to 58.77.

On the American Stock Exchange the market-value index had risen .59 to 107.21.

Goodyear Tire, the Big Board's most-active issue, fell 3/4 to 23 1/2 after disclosing that 1973 earnings would be lower than last year's. IBM, which is appealing a multimillion-dollar antitrust judgement against it, slid 5/8 to 249 1/2 after a 69,900-share block traded at 249 1/2.

A Page Of Opinion

Low Protein Effect

Few discussions will engender more emotion than a debate on diets between a meat-lover and a vegetarian. The exponents may know little about nutrition but they know what they like. The contention that people are what they eat frequently enters the argument.

There may be something to that, though perhaps not the way it is usually portrayed. An anthropologist who has studied the vegetarian Quolla tribe of Peru describes these as "the meanest people on Earth," probably because of a severe protein deficiency in their diet.

Ralph Bolton of Pomona College in California found the Quollas suffering from hypoglycemia (low blood sugar from a diet consisting almost entirely of potatoes, barley, oats and other grains. Those who suffered from extreme hypoglycemia Bolton found to be passive from lack of energy, but members of the tribe only mildly affected were found to be very aggressive.

Fifty per cent of the adults had been involved in homicides and fighting and other violence were commonplace. Bolton believes rage among the tribal members may be a life-saving device to correct the low blood sugar condition brought on by the diet. That ought to fuel the fires of diet antagonists.

Watergate And Cubans

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

In spite of the fact that there was no solid justification, either moral or pragmatic, for the Watergate tapping expedition, E. Howard Hunt Jr. came out of the Ervin committee hearings with some shred of dignity. He thought he was going to find evidence of foreign, meaning Castroite Cuban, tampering with the U.S. electoral process, which establishes the patriotic character of his motivation.

The thinking behind this was, of course, more or less brainless: why would Democratic Committee boss Larry O'Brien, a real pro, leave identifiable Castroite checks in a Watergate cash box or permit any long-distance telephone conversations with Havana to be carried on over his wire? The Hunt assumption of stupidity on the part of O'Brien's pros in the period before the McGovern takeover was itself stupid. Nevertheless Hunt remains a pitiable figure: he thought he was doing something for the good of his country.

Since a romanticism based on ignorance is no excuse for lawbreaking, Hunt presumably deserves some sort of sentence. But what about Bernard L. Barker and the other Miami, Florida, residents with the anti-Castro Cuban connections who had been recruited by Hunt for the Watergate break-in? They are even more pitiable than Hunt, who allowed them to believe they were doing a legally sanctioned job for the U.S. Hunt himself apparently believed that the operation was "plugged in" to the FBI through G. Gordon Liddy, a former FBI agent.

The reason for Barker's participation in the Watergate fiasco comes clear in Hunt's new book, "Give Us This Day," which is hot off the press at Arlington House Publishers in New Rochelle, N.Y. Hunt was sent to the Miami area to maintain a CIA connection with the anti-Castro political community while the Bay of Pigs expedition was shaping up at a coffee finca, or plantation, in the mountains of Guatemala. In a remarkable article in National Review, Miles Copeland, a former CIA man, says that Hunt was never a real CIA agent. According to Copeland, Hunt was just a "desk man whose operational experience consisted of kibitzing, from an administrative standpoint, some of the operations into Cuba." Hunt doesn't tell it this way himself, but this is neither here nor there insofar as Bernard Barker is concerned.

Barker was Hunt's assistant in handling the anti-Castro Cubans in Miami. An air force veteran of World War II, he had survived a German prison camp and had returned to Havana after 1945 with his Cuban wife. The CIA persuaded him to join the Havana police force in order to keep track of Cuban antisubversive activities. He thereby lost his U.S. citizenship, but he did yeoman work for the cause of freedom by exfiltrating refugees from the Castro tyranny.

Naturally Barker was gung-ho about the Eisenhower decision to help the anti-Castro exiles capture a beachhead and raise Cuba against the Communists. He loyally served Hunt and the CIA in Miami. "Many days," so Hunt writes, "he was with me around the clock, and overall his help was invaluable."

Being the loyal man he was, loyal to the anti-Castro cause, loyal to U.S. interests as he saw them, and loyal to Hunt as a friend, Barker was easily recruited for Watergate. He conveyed his enthusiasm to the Miami Cubans who agreed to help. They all thought the U.S., by assuming the duty of exposing Castroite interference in the 1972 election, was about to pay an overdue installment on the debt owed the veterans of the Bay of Pigs expedition for exposing them on the beach by cancellation of a supporting air strike.

Hunt's story of his personal involvement in the Bay of Pigs expedition is fascinating. Whether it is an over-romanticized version is a question that won't be resolved until ex-CIA man Richard Bissell writes his memoirs. But it does establish one thing: if Barker and the Cubans are socked with cruel and unusual punishment for their role in Watergate it will set the seal on Uncle Sam's unlovely reputation for doing in his friends.

According To Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks that a used car salesman gets tired of hearing:

"Just tell me one thing, Jake. If I buy it, will you guarantee it'll get me as far as the first stop light?"

"I know you told me you got it from a little old lady who only drove it to church on Sundays, Jake, but how many telephone poles did she hit on the way?"

"I've looked over all the cars on this lot. Did you fix them up for sale — or for burial?"

"Do you give green stamps?"

"It doesn't have to be anything special. I'm giving it to my brother-in-law as a present in return for his promise to leave town."

"I'm just a little old lady who wants a car only so I can drive to and from the place where I cash my welfare check. Do you have anything fire-red in a sports model?"

"Will there be any extra charge if I ask for hub caps on it?"

"I don't like to complain, Jake. But when your mechanic put together that last car you sold me, he must have run a little short of bailing wire."

"Are you sure this car is in perfect running condition? If it is, then why did a back tire fall off when I kicked one of the front tires?"

"After a test drive of this car, Jake, I'm sure it won't do. When I drove by a junkyard, it stopped automatically — as if it had been there before."

"If you bought this car from a little old lady, Jake, she must have been a little bit lit every time she got behind the wheel."

"Yeah, Jake has been known to return money to a dissatisfied customer, but only up to a point — gunpoint."

"I haven't seen a rumble seat in 30 years, even in a used car, Jake. Why don't you try to sell this model to a museum?"

"Jake says he stands behind every car he sells — but that's because he doesn't trust their brakes."

"I notice this car has wire wheels, Jake. Is that something new?"

"I'm 17 and just got my driver's license. My Dad says if I want a car, I'll have to buy it myself. Do you have anything I could get for $10 down and $2.50 a month the rest of my life?"

"I can't pay you $2,500 for that used limousine, but will you rent it to me for this afternoon? I want to drive it to a funeral and impress my wife's relatives."

"Yes, it's true that Jake got that car from a little old lady who only drove it to church. But the little old lady is Jake's mother, and Jake's own son used to borrow it from her and go joyriding in it every night of the week."

"Jake buys a new car every year for his own use and trades the old one in to another dealer who pays him more for it than Jake would give himself."

"No, I never said you weren't a reliable dealer, Jake. All I said was that I never heard of anybody in the White House ever buying a used car from you by mail."

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Thursday, Oct. 4, the 277th day of 1973. There are 88 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1957, the space age began as the Soviet Union put the first spacecraft into orbit around the earth.

On this date —

In 1777, in the American revolution, the British defeated American forces in the Battle of Germantown in Pennsylvania.

In 1824, the Republic of Mexico was proclaimed.

In 1910, Portugal's monarchy ended as King Emanuel fled to escape revolutionaries.

In 1940, during World War II, Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini conferred at the Brenner Pass in the Alps.

In 1945, the premier of the French Vichy government, Pierre Laval, was put on trial in Paris. He later was executed as a traitor.

In 1965, Pope Paul VI made an appeal for peace at the U.N. General Assembly in New York.

Ten years ago: Vietnamese plainclothesmen beat up three American newsmen who were at the scene in Saigon when a Buddhist monk burned himself to death.

Five years ago: The U.S. Senate approved the lowest foreign aid funds since the beginning of the program.

One year ago: The U.S. Senate served notice it would block a proposed American-Soviet trade agreement if the Soviets did not ease restrictions on Jewish emigration.

Today's birthdays: Actor Charlton Heston is 49. Baseball coach Frank Crosetti is 63.

Thought for today: The exploration of outer space has a bright future; it will never run out of space to explore. — Anonymous.

Mayor Ed Amey and members of the Circleville city police department declared City Council knowingly was "letting the first judge of the municipal court in for an awful headache" by failing to have the city laws codified.

They insisted that the lawmakers had deliberately ignored frequent reminders that the city's ordinances were "in such a fix that nobody's sure what's in them." The new municipal court system was due to begin operation on Jan. 1.

A group of 54 seventh and eighth grade boys attended a one-hour lecture period in City Hall in connection with a proposed schoolboy patrol program. A special lecture, detailing general information needed by the boys who would work as patrolmen, was conducted by Police Chief Elmer Merriman.

Plans were to station the schoolboy patrolmen at the intersections of Court and Mill and Court and Corwin Sts. to begin with.

Picking up increased support from community leaders as it moved through its most important stage, Circleville's expansion program was praised for the relaxing effect it would have on the local housing pinch.

Chairman Bob Adkins of the city planning and zoning commission submitted to Pickaway County commissioners a plat which traced the area marked for annexation — a large section adjoining the corporation on the north.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I have had a soreness over my breast bone for two years. The diagnosis is Costochondritis. The pain shoots through my arm and makes me believe that I am having a heart attack. I can't find anything about this in the books I read. Is it a form of arthritis?

Mrs. M.L., Mich.

Dear Mrs. M.L.:

The condition you describe refers to an inflammation of the cartilage of the breastbone and the ribs. Referred pain can extend through the side of the chest, to the back, and to the neck. The persistence of the pain and its distribution become a source of worry to people who may imagine that their heart is involved.

I am sure your own doctor has ruled out a heart condition and has assuaged your anxiety about it.

Unfortunately, it is easier to make the diagnosis than to find an exact cure for this irritating, but not serious, condition. It cannot be considered a form of arthritis, which mostly involves the joints of the body. A great many people find relief with the application of heat directly to the tender area. It is important not to lift heavy weights or to perform difficult exercises since rest is such an important factor for the relief of pain.

I am considerably annoyed by an eye problem which my own eye doctor does not seem to be concerned about. When the weather is cold or windy, my eyes water and make it difficult to hunt or play golf without dabbing my eyes continually. I buy every kind of

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — In 1950 national expenditures on health care, a conglomerate category that includes everything from the cost of building hospitals to curing simple headaches averaged $78.35 per person.

By 1972 that figure had quintupled to $394.16, as health care costs outpaced the cost of living and any of the components that make up the cost of living.

After such a leap many Americans believed the increase would slow, one of the reasons being that the pitifully inadequate wages paid to hospital service personnel in the 1950s were now considered more nearly adequate in the 1970s.

Moreover, the federal government was cracking down on the advertising claims of patent medicine makers and pressures were also being exerted to reduce the prices of prescription pharmaceuticals.

In addition, Blue Cross and Blue Shield and other medical and hospital insurance plans were being encouraged to actively resist higher prices rather than merely paying out whatever bills were submitted.

Competition between hospitals was also being discouraged and ways to cooperate were being sought. Why should two hospitals in an area each have a $10,000 piece of equipment when one would suffice?

But if you have faith in the projections of the Conference Board, and many businessmen and educators rely upon them heavily, prices are going to rise a lot more — nearly doubling by 1980.

The board projects national outlays on research, construction and personal health care at $757.02 per capita in 1980, which means that in all likelihood good health will remain a luxury to many.

These high prices aren't all to be attributed to the medical profession and its ancillary occupations, trades and businesses, because huge increases in building and technology costs contribute heavily.

The major portion of the increase nevertheless remains a strictly medical phenomenon. The study shows that medical care prices rose at an average annual rate of 3.9 per cent in the '50s, 4.7 in the '60s and 6.5 in 1971.

Consumer goods prices for the same periods rose 2.1 per cent, 2.7 per cent and 4.3 per cent, respectively.

The board attributed the increases to "money spent on achieving medical advances which require the development of new, expensive medical facilities and treatment techniques."

It said increased in-hospital medical care has also contributed to the rise. Other sources say this tendency to bed down a patient who could be treated as an ambulatory or outpatient has been one of the major faults and chief expenses in hospital administration.

—The cost of hospital care, the researchers determined, has risen at an average of 8.5 per cent a year for the past two decades, and since 1966 the rates has been nearly 14 per cent a year.

In explanation, the board noted that between 1950 and 1970 the number of full-time hospital personnel providing a day's care for a patient rose from 1.7 to 3.

It added that "the introduction of highly complex, potentially life-saving machinery, such as intensive care units and open-heart surgery equipment, has also caused hospital prices to increase."

In the meantime, life expectancy, which rose from 47.3 years in 1900 to 68.2 years in 1950, rose only 2.6 from 1950 to 1970, insurance industry figures show.

Laborers To Picket Ohio Bell Building

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Members of Laborers Local 423 in Columbus planned to picket an Ohio Bell Telephone Co. construction site Wednesday to protest the hiring of a non-union contractor who allegedly does not conform to minority hiring practices.

A union spokesman said picketers at the downtown site will attempt to stop deliveries by suppliers.

Overall gain from marketing receipts in 1973 is expected to be about $3 billion, mostly from livestock sales.

They'll Do It Every Time

IMPORTANT FUN—Demonstrating equipment used to test the hearing of four and five year old children are Michele Wolfe and Jon Reichart. The free clinic sponsored by Circleville Child Development League will be held from 9 a.m.-noon and 1-3 p.m. Friday and from 9 a.m.-noon Saturday. The simple test may indicate if a child has a hearing loss. The clinic will be in the Parish House of Trinity Lutheran Church on E. Mound St.

Westfall Needs Middle School

Voters of the Westfall School District are going to be asked to approve a very vital bond issue in November. The school board is asking for a 3.9 mill levy to raise the $1,600,000 needed to build a new middle school. There will be no additional or renewal levies on the ballot.

The middle school, which would be built on ground adjoining Westfall High School would accommodate students in grades 6-8. The high school would again contain grades 9-12. The junior and senior high schools are presently operating on a split session.

By including the sixth grade in the middle school building, space would be available for special education and kindergarten classes at each of the elementary buildings. A recent state law requiring all schools to have libraries has caused the remaining space to be used for library purposes instead of these classes.

Members of the planning committee and a group of volunteer workers from the district met Monday to discuss methods of contacting the registered voters in the area regarding the need for the school. Additional workers will be secured to canvass the area.

All persons of voting age who have not yet registered, are urged to do so before Oct. 9. Registration closes on that date.

Health Plan Unveiled

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposed national health insurance plan that would cover all major family medical costs beyond $2,000 annually was introduced Tuesday in the Senate.

The proposal by Sens. Russell B. Long, D-La., and Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., places a major emphasis on catastrophic illnesses. Cost of the legislation would be $8.9 billion.

The measure would provide:

- Coverage for all families of major medical costs over $2,000 in a year and beyond 60 days of hospitalization for each individual.
- Basic benefits for low-income families covering the first $2,000 of annual costs and the first 60 days of hospitalization.
- Ways for persons not in the low-income category to obtain private health insurance policies for the first $2,000 medical and the first 60 days hospital costs.

Long, chairman of the Finance Committee which handles health insurance legislation, and Ribicoff, a committee member and former Health, Education and Welfare secretary, said their plan should go a long way toward meeting most Americans' health costs.

IMPORTANT FUN—Demonstrating equipment used to test the hearing of four and five year old children are Michele Wolfe and Jon Reichart. The free clinic sponsored by Circleville Child Development League will be held from 9 a.m.-noon and 1-3 p.m. Friday and from 9 a.m.-noon Saturday. The simple test may indicate if a child has a hearing loss. The clinic will be in the Parish House of Trinity Lutheran Church on E. Mound St.

Westfall Needs Middle School

Voters of the Westfall School District are going to be asked to approve a very vital bond issue in November. The school board is asking for a 3.9 mill levy to raise the $1,600,000 needed to build a new middle school. There will be no additional or renewal levies on the ballot.

The middle school, which would be built on ground adjoining Westfall High School would accommodate students in grades 6-8. The high school would again contain grades 9-12. The junior and senior high schools are presently operating on a split session.

By including the sixth grade in the middle school building, space would be available for special education and kindergarten classes at each of the elementary buildings. A recent state law requiring all schools to have libraries has caused the remaining space to be used for library purposes instead of these classes.

Members of the planning committee and a group of volunteer workers from the district met Monday to discuss methods of contacting the registered voters in the area regarding the need for the school. Additional workers will be secured to canvass the area.

All persons of voting age who have not yet registered, are urged to do so before Oct. 9. Registration closes on that date.

Health Plan Unveiled

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposed national health insurance plan that would cover all major family medical costs beyond $2,000 annually was introduced Tuesday in the Senate.

The proposal by Sens. Russell B. Long, D-La., and Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., places a major emphasis on catastrophic illnesses. Cost of the legislation would be $8.9 billion.

The measure would provide:

- Coverage for all families of major medical costs over $2,000 in a year and beyond 60 days of hospitalization for each individual.
- Basic benefits for low-income families covering the first $2,000 of annual costs and the first 60 days of hospitalization.
- Ways for persons not in the low-income category to obtain private health insurance policies for the first $2,000 medical and the first 60 days hospital costs.

Long, chairman of the Finance Committee which handles health insurance legislation, and Ribicoff, a committee member and former Health, Education and Welfare secretary, said their plan should go a long way toward meeting most Americans' health costs.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—China has ended an undeclared big power truce at the United Nations with charges that U.S.-Soviet detente is a coverup for a "desperate struggle for nuclear superiority and world domination."

Rivalry between Moscow and Washington "now extends all over the world ... Their scramble is becoming increasingly fierce ... There is no tranquility in the world today ... only a travesty of peaceful coexistence," Chinese Deputy Foreign Minister Chiao Kuanhua told the General Assembly Tuesday.

The No. 2 man in the Soviet delegation, Vasily Safronchuk, took the floor to accuse Chiao of "turning facts upside down." By criticizing East-West relaxation, Safronchuk said the Chinese representative had tried "to divert the United Nations from a business discussion of concrete problems and to hinder its work" without presenting any program of his own.

If Moscow is so anxious to relax world tension, Chiao said, "why don't you show your good faith by withdrawing your armed forces from Czechoslovakia or Mongolia" or by returning the four islands taken from Japan at the end of World War II.

Shifting his attack to the United States, Chiao said the Vietnamese people had achieved "a great victory against U.S. aggression," and this "once again proved that imperialism and all reactionaries are paper tigers."

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Retail gasoline dealers from around the state scheduled a meeting here Thursday to discuss participation in a nationwide protest of price regulations.

From 300 to 500 dealers are expected to attend the meeting, which could spur a statewide shutdown.

Dealers said new regulations approved by the Cost of Living Council last week provided them some relief, but they are still dissatisfied because they can't pass along wholesale price boosts.

1 1/2 cups Food Club Milk
1 (3-oz.) Pkg. Food Club Cream Cheese, cut in cubes
2 oz. Roquefort or Blue Cheese, crumbled
1/2 cup cracker crumbs

1 tblsp. melted Gaylord Butter

Cook broccoli in boiling salted water until just tender. Drain well. Melt 2 tblsp. butter in small saucepan. Stir in flour, then add milk and finally cheeses. Cook over low heat until slightly thickened and smooth. Cool slightly, arrange broccoli in 2 quart casserole. Pour cheese sauce over broccoli. Bake at 350 degrees F for 30 minutes. Remove from oven; top with crumbs mixed with 1 tblsp. butter. Return to oven and bake 10 minutes or more. Serves 4 to 6.

Lead Poisoning Problems Noted

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — A child is more likely to suffer crippling lead poisoning from dust inside the house than from the soil outside, according to a research report presented at an environmental health conference here.

Dr. Jaroslav Vostal of the University of Rochester, N.Y., told a conference of national and international authorities on low-level toxicity Monday night that lead-containing dust inside the home may account for the higher blood lead levels observed in inner-city children.

Vostal said a project conducted at the University of Rochester, which involved taking samples of dust from floors, walls and window sills of urban homes, found lead levels five times higher than the dust inside low-risk suburban homes painted with new, low-lead coatings.

The dust itself may be the previously unsuspected source for the difference, he said, since a child's hand is very efficient at transferring the dust from floor to mouth.

Until now, experts have looked to paint chips, soil and colored newspaper comics for lead poisoning in children who are afflicted with pica, the mysterious urge to eat foreign objects.

A London researcher reported, however, that "no biological significance" could be found between the level of lead-contaminated soil and incidence of lead poisoning.

Dr. Clifford Strehlow, an American, said a study at St. Mary's Hospital Medical School in London suggests that "the recent concern with regard to contaminated soils is not well-founded," and that soil lead levels of as much as 10,000 parts per million "are without major significance."

Dr. Samuel Epstein of Case Western Reserve University, a frequent environmental health witness before congressional committees, challenged Strehlow's conclusion that the findings can be extrapolated to mean that street dust also can be excluded as a hazard.

He suggested that the rate of absorption from lead-containing street dust, common in urban areas, and naturally occurring lead in soil, may be drastically different.

Seed Costs On Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Livestock producers who turned to fall pastures to help offset rising costs of feed concentrates have found seed supplies also tight and expensive, according to the Agriculture Department.

Prices paid for seed used in planting fall crops for winter cover and pasture were up 47 per cent from a year earlier as of Sept. 15, says the department. Compared with the base year of 1967, the prices for all seed averaged 97 per cent higher.

The Sept. 15 average price of uncertified alfalfa seed was $105 per 100 pounds, up from $54.80 on the same date last year. Certified alfalfa was $119 per hundredweight, up from $64.50.

Other seeds such as clover, timothy, orchardgrass, vetch and fescue also have soared in price.

Seed for the big field crops have risen too. Wheat for fall planting averaged $7.20 per bushel Sept. 15, compared with $2.97 a year earlier. Oats were $3.90 compared with $2.27; Barley $4.60 compared with $2.88; and rye $4.90 compared with $1.78 a year ago.

Storms Rip Mississippi Valley Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Thunderstorms whipped by 80-mile-per-hour winds and laced with hail hit the middle Mississippi Valley early today.
The storms were triggered by moisture-laden air fanning northward from the Gulf of Mexico where a band of showers and thundershowers Wednesday damped areas from Texas to the Atlantic coastal plain.

Hailstones reached a diameter of two inches near Kirksville, Mo., about midnight and almost an inch of rain fell in one hour.
A few light showers sprinkled the northern Plains and light thundershowers dotted areas from the lower Great Lakes region to the Eastern Seaboard.

Temperatures dipped below freezing in the northern Rockies in contrast to Wednesday's record heat in Texas. The mercury hit 96 at El Paso, a record high for the month of October and two degrees above the old mark. A record 94 parched Amarillo, Tex.
Some snow was expected at higher elevations in the central Rockies.

Health Outlays Top $75 Million

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Public Welfare paid $75,765,851 in health care claims during the first quarter of fiscal year 1974, Welfare Director Charles W. Bates said today.
Bates said the money went out for 3,143,758 claims submitted by medical vendors for health care provided to recipients of the crippled children and aged, blind, disabled and dependent children program.

Hospitals have received the biggest chunk of the money for the three months, $31.4 million, Bates said.
The Grand Canyon in Arizona is at least 280 miles long.

Putnam Murder Trial Slated Nov. 12

OTTAWA, Ohio (AP) — Trial was set for Nov. 12 in Putnam County Common Pleas Court for Eddy Lee Bower who pleaded innocent by reason of insanity Tuesday to two counts of first-degree murder. Bower is accused of running down his wife and a companion in July with his car.

Fall Season Opens For BPW Club

The Business and Professional Women's Club opened the fall season with a meeting at the Historical Society meeting room on Thursday with the membership committee in charge.

Dr. W. L. Sprouse presented talk on the early history of Pickaway County with emphasis on candid glimpses of life in Circleville and towns in the area. His talk was amply laced with amusing anecdotes and he gave an interesting insight to many phases of everyday living at the time.

Musical selections were presented by Joan Brink accompanied by Weta Mae Leist at the piano. A guest was Connie Hickman.

Freda Collins, president, conducted a business meeting following the program. The next meeting will be on Oct. 25th in charge of Emma Curlett with the district director making her official visit. The club will also celebrate National Business Women's week with a breakfast on Tuesday morning Oct. 23rd at a local restaurant, under the charge of Mrs. Curlett.

Refreshments were served prior to the meeting with the committee in charge composed of chairman, Dr. Nancy Conrad, Mary K. Kennedy, Clarissa Talbut, Elizabeth Alteyer and Regina Seitz.

Solaqua Garden Club To Meet Friday

Solaqua Garden Club has planned its next meeting for 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Ashville Coffee Shop. Hostesses will be Mrs. James Hott, Mrs. Paul Stout and Mrs. Lee Downs.

The Viennese desserts called Torten are sometimes made with finely ground nutmeats without the inclusion of any flour.

MRS. JOSEPH MICHAEL DEAN

Miss Sandra Sue Mosley, Joseph Michael Dean Are Wed

Miss Sandra Sue Mosley and Mrs. Joseph Michael Dean were united in marriage 7 p.m., Aug., 30th, at Pontious United Methodist Church. 'I'm Looking For A Man' Program For Senior Citizens

Pickaway Senior Center members held their monthly all day meeting Thursday in the Lutheran Parish House.

After the usual morning activities, sack lunches were eaten topped off with the birthday cakes in honor of those having September birthdays. Seated at the special birthday table were: Gordon DeNike, Eunice Shy, Florence Fetherolf, Faye Fausnaugh, Helen Newlon, Mark DeLong, Almeda Hill, Lawrence Hoover, Florence Spangler, Dwight Smith, and Fred Weidman.

Others having September birthdays but not present were: Joe Jenkins, Ruth Shaffer, Roliff Wolford, Ellen Harmount, Helen Kibler, Helen Knece, Mary Stein, Ethel Gregory, Clark Smith, Nellie Oesterle, Harry Dietz (who is in Mercy Hospital).

Ella Mae Jenkins, Wilmine Haecker, Walter Evans, George Kerr, Daisy Welch, Helen Roby, Grace Courtright, Josephine Dille, Ethel Boyer, Mildred Brink, Lester Wolford, Fern Schwarz, and Freda Hulse.

The group's oldest member, Aunt Minnie Heise who was to be 103 on Sept. 29th, came for the program, and a special "Happy Birthday" was sung to her also.

John Miranda, president, conducted a short business meeting during which Mrs. Blanche Kerns turned over the money she had received in donations toward the dinner which had been canceled. Mrs. Lorentz accepted it to become part of the matching funds needed for the operation of the Center. She also thanked those donating, and also others who have sent cash donations or items to sell at the Center. Over $1,000 has been raised so far, with more needed by the end of March, 1974.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, administrators of Circleville Manor, our county's newest nursing home, explained briefly some of the financing problems of both operating such an institution, and some that many residents encounter. They urged everyone to write to their state officials asking that the basic amount paid by the State toward the care of those unable to pay for themselves be raised. They said the present rate is entirely insufficient with the present day costs for food, labor, and other overhead items most people do not even think of.

A group of members put on a hilarious musical skit, entitled "I'm Looking For A Man". Taking part (though almost unrecognizable in their costumes and makeup) were: Faye Fausnaugh, Catherine Hawks, Isabella Badger (the man they found), Alice Scothorn, Bessie Good, Leona Crites, and pianist Viola Rife.

Mrs. Fannie Brooks entertained with a vocal solo, "Garden of Tomorrow" and concluded with "Memories" which she dedicated to all of the people who had gone on the trips with her since May. She thanked everyone for their fine cooperation and said she hoped they all had memories of good times with old and new friends as she had.

Concluding the program, Tom Weldon, Pickaway County Wildlife Conservationist, showed a Walt Disney movie, "Nature's Half Acre." This marvelous color film showed various kinds of birds building nests, raising their young, and also the cycles of life for other animals and insects, and in timed-exposure pictures showed the trees coming into leaf in the spring, flowers opening, from buds to full bloom.

"Nature's Half Acre" may look like a peaceful place, but in fact, there are millions of activities going on all the time if one but knows where and when to look.

Next scheduled activity will be a tour of Circleville Manor leaving the Center at 2 p.m., Oct. 4th. Anyone wishing to go along is welcome.

The Ashville group will meet at the Community Park Shelter House Oct. 11th. The Center will sponsor a hospitality center for Senior Citizens each day of Pumpkin Show, at the Community United Methodist Church basement, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

All Senior citizens visiting the show are cordially invited to come in for a cup of hot coffee and rest a bit, and get acquainted with the people who happen to be there at the moment. The Center has been corresponding with many groups from other towns who are planning to be here sometime during the week.

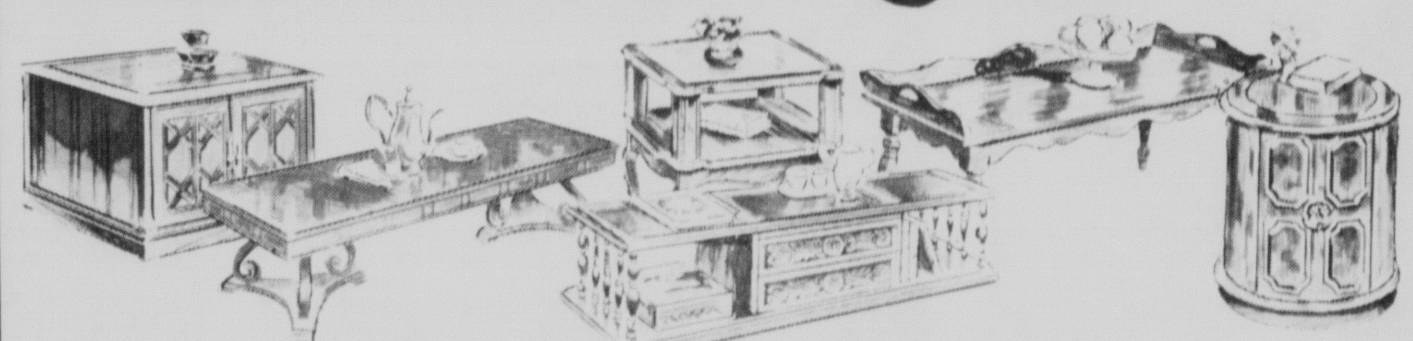

The next regular meeting of the Center will be Oct. 25th. For more information about the Center, call 474-4916 any weekday between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Center membership now stands at 326.

Rev. Melvin Maxwell Monday Club Speaker

The Rev. Melvin Maxwell, president of Circleville Bible College, will be guest speaker for the Oct. 8th meeting of Monday Club in the meeting room of Pickaway County Historical Society.

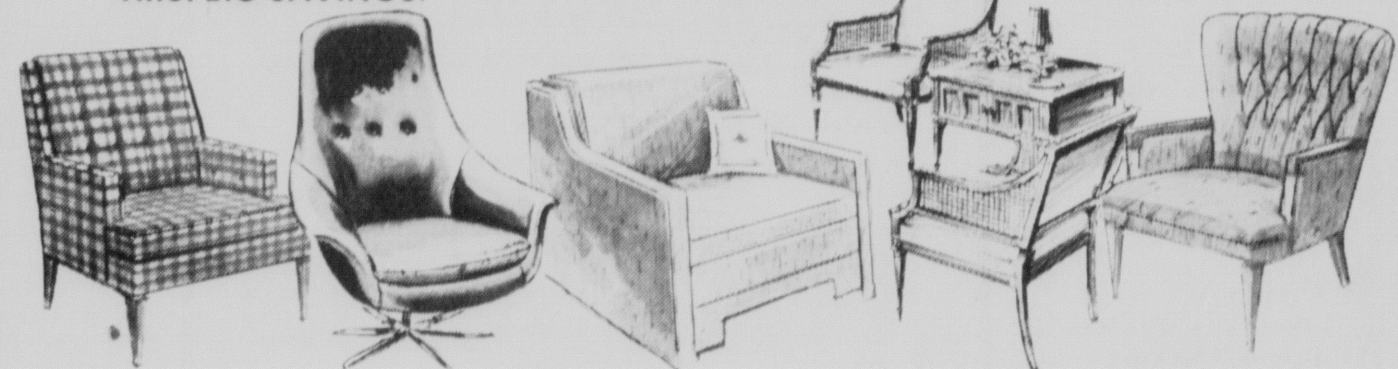

Rev. Maxwell will use "How Does America Look To You?" as his subject and Mrs. Frank Morrison will be the reporter.

Fall Season Opens For BPW Club

The Business and Professional Women's Club opened the fall season with a meeting at the Historical Society meeting room on Thursday with the membership committee in charge.

Dr. W. L. Sprouse presented talk on the early history of Pickaway County with emphasis on candid glimpses of life in Circleville and towns in the area. His talk was amply laced with amusing anecdotes and he gave an interesting insight to many phases of everyday living at the time.

Musical selections were presented by Joan Brink accompanied by Weta Mae Leist at the piano. A guest was Connie Hickman.

Freda Collins, president, conducted a business meeting following the program. The next meeting will be on Oct. 25th in charge of Emma Curlett with the district director making her official visit. The club will also celebrate National Business Women's week with a breakfast on Tuesday morning Oct. 23rd at a local restaurant, under the charge of Mrs. Curlett.

Refreshments were served prior to the meeting with the committee in charge composed of chairman, Dr. Nancy Conrad, Mary K. Kennedy, Clarissa Talbut, Elizabeth Altyer and Regina Seitz.

Chamber Of Commerce Nominates Directors; Renovates Office Building

The nominating committee of the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce board of directors presented nominations for new board members at the regular monthly meeting Tuesday. The luncheon meeting was held at Tink's Restaurant.

Chairman of the nominating committee, Nelson Embrey, announced five nominees for three year terms: Keith Thomerson, Sentry Hardware; George Bingham, G. C. Murphy Company; Don Brandon, J.C. Penney Company; Calvin Danford, Columbia Gas of Ohio; James Butler, PPG Industries. Also nominated to fill an unexpired term was Harold Pontious of Columbus Industries.

Elections of members of the board of directors are made from the nominations either by the nominating committee or by individual members. The board resolved to accept the nominees proposed and balloting will take place by mail. It is a policy of the board that a member cannot succeed himself for at least two years.

The agri-business committee presented a brochure outlining the Pickaway County Parade of the Plains, a drive-it-yourself farm-city tour. The tour, representing the high points of interest throughout the county, will make 18 stops. The brochure will be distributed at local banks or can be obtained from the chamber office.

Tour date is Oct. 14, 1-5 p.m. Since it would be physically impossible to visit all the stops suggested on the agenda, the agri-business committee suggests you pick out the stops which interest you most and go visit them. A guide will be present at each stop to explain the operations. You can stop or start at any point of the tour schedule.

Places of interest include nine farms, Pickaway County Airport, Deercreek Reservoir, Landmark Dehydration Plant, Cole Nursery, and others.

A letter of resignation from Red Hartman was read at the meeting. Red has been transferred and will no longer be with the board.

The legislative committee reported four issues which will be on the November ballot. Brochures will be available discussing each of the issues in detail.

Plans for the last major project in the renovation of the chamber office were completed. The board resolved to contract George Van Camp Company to do the work required on the front steps, sidewalk and handrails in front of the office. Van Camp's estimate of $1491 was accepted and the work will be done during this year if weather permits and if not, as soon as is feasible in 1974.

The building, owned by the Historical Society, was a bank from its birth in 1848 until 1964. The Second National Bank gave the building to the Historical Society in 1964 and it remained empty until the chamber of commerce moved its office there in March of 1971. Since then, the chamber of commerce has remodeled the old building preserving as much of its historical value as possible.

The retail merchants presented their new "holiday opening sale" sign which will be used by local merchants.

Public Relations committee reported that the new brochure is now at the printer and will be available by Dec. 1. The new brochure has updated the information contained in the old one and has included a revised map of the city. A separate map will also be available at the chamber office.

A final report was made to the board by the education committee. A meeting was held on Sept. 12 with City Schools Superintendent, Fritz Jacobs, principals and teachers involved to discuss the program for the current school year.

Each year area businessmen participate in the school program by giving talks to various classes on the consumer education program. Several local businessmen were asked to assist in explaining the practical end of business. Plans for this year's speakers were completed at the meeting.

Back Propane Allocation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Ohio Department of Agriculture Director Gene Abercrombie said the Nixon administration's "mandatory allocation" of propane gas is "probably very fair."

"The only problem that I can see is if we should have a winter like we had last winter where we had only so many harvesting days and we had a peak usage of propane gas, this could give us a real problem," Abercrombie said.

"I would feel easier if it had been done right after we experienced the horrendous experience we had last January and couldn't get enough gas into the state to dry our crops when we only had about a ten-day harvesting season," he said.

Walter Lippmann Critically Ill

NEW YORK (AP) — Walter Lippmann, one of America's pre-eminent political journalists, was in critical condition at a hospital here today.

Officials said Lippmann was rushed to New York Hospital Tuesday after suffering a stroke at his Manhattan home. The retired journalist and author celebrated his 84th birthday last week.

It was Lippmann's second major health problem this year. In March he was hospitalized after suffering a heart attack.

Elections of members of the board of directors are made from the nominations either by the nominating committee or by individual members. The board resolved to accept the nominees proposed and balloting will take place by mail. It is a policy of the board that a member cannot succeed himself for at least two years.

The agri-business committee presented a brochure outlining the Pickaway County Parade of the Plains, a drive-it-yourself farm-city tour. The tour, representing the high points of interest throughout the county, will make 18 stops. The brochure will be distributed at local banks or can be obtained from the chamber office.

Tour date is Oct. 14, 1-5 p.m. Since it would be physically impossible to visit all the stops suggested on the agenda, the agri-business committee suggests you pick out the stops which interest you most and go visit them. A guide will be present at each stop to explain the operations. You can stop or start at any point of the tour schedule.

Places of interest include nine farms, Pickaway County Airport, Deercreek Reservoir, Landmark Dehydration Plant, Cole Nursery, and others.

A letter of resignation from Red Hartman was read at the meeting. Red has been transferred and will no longer be with the board.

The legislative committee reported four issues which will be on the November ballot. Brochures will be available discussing each of the issues in detail.

Plans for the last major project in the renovation of the chamber office were completed. The board resolved to contract George Van Camp Company to do the work required on the front steps, sidewalk and handrails in front of the office. Van Camp's estimate of $1491 was accepted and the work will be done during this year if weather permits and if not, as soon as is feasible in 1974.

The building, owned by the Historical Society, was a bank from its birth in 1848 until 1964. The Second National Bank gave the building to the Historical Society in 1964 and it remained empty until the chamber of commerce moved its office there in March of 1971. Since then, the chamber of commerce has remodeled the old building preserving as much of its historical value as possible.

The retail merchants presented their new "holiday opening sale" sign which will be used by local merchants.

Public Relations committee reported that the new brochure is now at the printer and will be available by Dec. 1. The new brochure has updated the information contained in the old one and has included a revised map of the city. A separate map will also be available at the chamber office.

A final report was made to the board by the education committee. A meeting was held on Sept. 12 with City Schools Superintendent, Fritz Jacobs, principals and teachers involved to discuss the program for the current school year.

Each year area businessmen participate in the school program by giving talks to various classes on the consumer education program. Several local businessmen were asked to assist in explaining the practical end of business. Plans for this year's speakers were completed at the meeting.

Back Propane Allocation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Ohio Department of Agriculture Director Gene Abercrombie said the Nixon administration's "mandatory allocation" of propane gas is "probably very fair."

"The only problem that I can see is if we should have a winter like we had last winter where we had only so many harvesting days and we had a peak usage of propane gas, this could give us a real problem," Abercrombie said.

"I would feel easier if it had been done right after we experienced the horrendous experience we had last January and couldn't get enough gas into the state to dry our crops when we only had about a ten-day harvesting season," he said.

Walter Lippmann Critically Ill

NEW YORK (AP) — Walter Lippmann, one of America's pre-eminent political journalists, was in critical condition at a hospital here today.

Officials said Lippmann was rushed to New York Hospital Tuesday after suffering a stroke at his Manhattan home. The retired journalist and author celebrated his 84th birthday last week.

It was Lippmann's second major health problem this year. In March he was hospitalized after suffering a heart attack.

County Schools In Home Grid Tilts

Read The Classifieds

It will be action on the home front for all three county schools Friday night with Marysville at Teays Valley, Unioto at Westfall and Pickerington at Logan Elm.

Teays Valley and Dublin are tied for the Metropolitan League lead with marks of 2-0 and a win for the Vikings will certainly put them in a top spot for a run at the Metro crown.

Marysville is 1-3 for the season and holds a 1-1 mark in Metro competition. It is a must win game for the Monarchs if they are going to remain in the league running.

The Monarchs will operate from a wing I and shotgun formations. They like to run off tackle, sweep and counter from the I and will go to the air when they move into the shotgun.

It has been a rebuilding year for Marysville and the lack of experience has hampered the Monarchs but they are beginning to show signs of jelling and could be trouble for the Vikings. They have average size on the squad with fair overall team speed. The man the Vikings will have to contain is tailback Doug Shipp who is quick and a deceptive runner.

It will be a straight 5-4 Oklahoma defense with zone coverage in the secondary.

The Vikings are healthy. And a healthy Viking squad means trouble for the opposition.

The Vikings, 3-1 for the season, will be coming into the contest off a big 14-12 win over highly touted Franklin Heights last week. The Blue and Gold gridders have put together three straight wins, over Circleville, Olentangy and Franklin Heights, after dropping a 28-14 decision to Groveport in the season opener.

They are paced by the running of tailback Terry Lambert who has been averaging better than 100 yards a game and is the leading scorer in the Metro League.

Teays Valley coach Dick Kidwell had high praise for the offensive line play of Lee Stiles and Boyd Palsgrove and the defensive efforts of Bill Hurley, Brad Black and Lance Henson against the Falcons.

When the offensive squad of the Vikings hits the field, it will be: Henson and Palsgrove at the ends; Stiles and Dennis Stir, tackles; Hurley and Keith Pettibone, guards; Karl Snyder at center; Chuck Glitt, quarterback; Mike Pettibone, fullback; Steve Williams, halfback; Lambert, tailback.

Defensively, it will be: Henson and Keith Pettibone, ends; Brad Black and Steve Gray, tackles; Hurley, middle guard; Bill Breen and Mike Reed, linebackers, Tony Sayre and Bob Weber, invert backs; Lambert and Glitt, safeties.

Westfall will host Unioto, a team the Mustangs have never beaten, in a Scioto Valley Conference fray. The Mustangs are 1-3 for the season and 0-2 in league play. It will be homecoming for the Mustangs.

This is a much improved Westfall team and with a few breaks in earlier contests could very easily be holding a 3-1 mark for the season.

It will be a healthy bunch of Mustangs taking the field and they will be going all out to put another win in the record book.

The Shermans will be coming into the contest with a 2-2 mark after suffering a 24-12 loss last week to a tough Adena team. The Mustangs dropped an 8-0 decision to Adena in their encounter.

Unioto will move from a pro formation with a balanced attack. The Shermans have a fine quarterback in P. J. Dailey who can throw both long and short and have three top notch receivers. The running game is powered by tailback Randy Sprouse and their strong fullback, Chester.

The offensive unit of the Mustangs will be: Bill Kiser, center; Tim Lett and Tim Hegarty, guards; Walter Garland and Jim Dawson, tackles; Randy Puckett and Joe Angles, ends; Dave Shannon, quarterback; Artie Dick, fullback; Rick Gaa and Terry Hegarty, halfbacks.

Defensively, it will be: Tim Hegarty, middle guard; John Long and Dick, linebackers; Dawson and Kiser, tackles; Puckett and Randy Hildenbrand, ends; Gaa and Shannon, cornerbacks; Dave Bullock and Gary Thompson, halfbacks.

Although Pickerington has not won a game yet, Coach Bob Stant believes they are a team with a lot of potential. They will show opposition a lot of different looks on offense and their unusual 4-5 defense is different than any the Braves have faced this year.

They pose a definite passing threat, especially from a double slot formation. This will put more pressure on the linebackers and secondary. They run from this formation enough to keep the defense honest according to Stant.

They also line up in a fullhouse T, the Wishbone T, a regular slot formation and a wing formation, using a man in motion frequently. Their best football player is Bill Belleau, a senior end and middle linebacker. Fullback Tony Stansberry, a junior, is the workhorse of the game. A lot of injuries have seriously hampered the Picktown Tigers this year.

Logan Elm has been hit by a rash of injuries and illnesses this week. Quarterback Steve Sargent has a sore elbow; guard-linebacker Brian Herron is definitely out of action with a blood clot on his thigh; Brian Barr is a doubtful starter because of a severe shoulder bruise; Brad Luckhart is also doubtful because of a groin injury that caused him to miss much of last week's game; Halfback Steve Rawlins has a blood infection which could possibly sideline him or at least curtail his action.

The Braves will use 4-4 and 6-2 defenses this week. Starters on the 4-4 tentatively are: Rawlins, left end; Mark Justus, right end with Doug Hildenbrand ready to fill in at either spot; Seth Driesbach and Marty Fullen at tackles with Mark Bower and Chris Payne ready for duty; Jeff Reichelderfer, Steve Morrison, Stew Jones and Wayne Linthicum at linebackers with Dave Dean listed as a possible starter; Terry Crumley and either Wes King or Luckhart at halfbacks and either Sargent or Derek Morris at safety.

On offense, Reichelderfer is the tight end; Driesbach and Fullen the tackles, Jones and either Morrison, Dean, Hildenbrand or Pat Williams the guards, Payne at center; Sargent at quarterback; Dan Ramey at fullback, Rawlins or Crumley at halfback and Linthicum at I back.

Stant named Ramey and Reichelderfer his offensive and defensive players of the game against Fairfield Union.

Although presently locked in a 4-way tie for fifth place in the Mid State standings, Coach Stant says his Braves still have a shot at the title. This week could be the turning point, depending on the outcome of the Millersport-Liberty Union and the Carroll-Canal Winchester games. Liberty Union and Canal Winchester are presently tied with Berne Union with 3-0 records at the top of the Mid State.

Anderson Not Misled

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati Manager George "Sparky" Anderson waved off the New York Mets' record—worst among the four division winners in the majors—and talked of respect for this weekend's playoff opponent.

"I think people are being misled by the Mets," said Anderson.

"If that club had stayed healthy all year, they would have won at least 95 games," he said as the Reds, National League Western Division champs with baseball's best record—99-63—prepare for Saturday's opener with the Eastern Division winners.

"The Mets we're facing are healthy. They're not as destitute as they make out," Anderson said in reference to the wave of injuries which hounded the Mets all season.

He also had Mets' pitching ace Tom Seaver in mind. Seaver will reportedly not start the first game due to a shoulder problem.

New York overcame the series of setbacks with a late-season onrush to come from last place as late as Aug. 30 to win the division with an 82-79 record.

"There's no danger we'll be looking ahead," said Anderson, recalling the 1969 Mets' miracle when they charged out of obscurity to win the National League and, after dropping the World Series opener, claimed the world title with four straight victories over the Baltimore Orioles.

"We've got too much respect for them," said Anderson, who has said he'll open with 18-game winner Don Gullett Saturday. He'll oppose Jon Matlack, 15-16.

Anderson plans to match 19-game winner Jack Billingham against the Mets' Seaver on Sunday in the best-of-five series.

Pete Rose, the National League batting champ, sees the playoffs as a time for the Reds' pitchers to get some overdue credit.

"Everybody talks about the New York Mets' pitching of Seaver, Kossman and Matlack. Nobody says much about our staff yet we had a 19-game winner, an 18-game winner and two guys with 13.

"As far as I'm concerned, we've got as good a pitching staff as anyone," said the Reds' captain.

Rose said he hears talk of the mets having the momentum to stop the favored Big Red Machine.

"We've got the momentum," he retorted, pointing to the Reds' sizzling pennant drive which saw the Cincinnati club storm back to win 70 per cent of its games—60 of 86—over the last three months.

Cincinnati defeated the Mets in eight of 12 regular season meetings.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The University of Delaware, gunning for an unprecedented third straight national college division football championship, continues to lead the Associated Press' weekly poll.

The Blue Hens, a 21-9 winner over Lehigh last week, received 27 first-place votes and a total of 885 points from a nationwide panel of sports-writers and broadcasters. Delaware has an 18-game winning streak dating back to the 1971 season.

The Blue Hens are 4-0 this season. Grambling and South Dakota, both 4-0, held the second and third positions, each collecting seven first-place votes. The Tigers piled up 762 points after thumping Prairie View 37-12, and South Dakota got 635 points on the strength of a 19-7 triumph over Northern Iowa.

Yogi Berra Waits For New Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — Now that he has a key to the city, the only thing Yogi Berra needs is a contract to manage a baseball team for next season.

The logical team would seem to be the New York Mets, the club Yogi has piloted to the National League East Division title. But they haven't asked him back yet.

That, of course, could be meaningless. The Mets traditionally make their managerial decisions after the season. On the other hand, it could be ominous. The last time Yogi managed a club that finished first, it was the New York Yankees in 1964. Instead of getting a new contract, he got fired. Will history repeat itself?

"I don't know yet," said Berra, allowing himself a mischievous grin. "I don't think so."

In mid-summer, when the Mets were in last place 12 games back and five teams away from the top, there was considerable sniping at the manager. Donald Grant, the club's chairman of the board, described Berra's position as secure at that time, but added a cryptic after-thought, saying that it depended on fan opinion. At that time, Yogi's rating with the customers wasn't very high.

There were times during the season that even Berra doubted the team's ability to win the title.

Injuries piled up, and for awhile, it seemed that Berra never would have a totally healthy club. When he finally did, it thundered through September at a sizzling 21-8 pace to win the title.

Ironically, the Mets' won-lost record of 82-79 is the worst they have posted in any year since they won the division, playoff and World Series in 1969.

There is one more irony. If the Mets don't invite Berra back, he could still wind up in Shea Stadium anyway.

thern Iowa.

Eastern Michigan, 4-0, moved up one place to fourth after a 47-14 conquest of St. Norbert. Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo, 3-0, advanced from eighth to fifth after beating Cal-Riverside 26-17.

Hawaii, 3-0, remained sixth after slipping past Texas Southern 24-21. Tennessee State, 3-0, fell from fourth to seventh despite taking the week off.

Boise State, 3-0, was up two positions to eighth after routing Portland State 64-7. Louisiana Tech, 3-1, got by McNeese 10-7 and maintained the No. 9 spot. Carson-Newman, 3-0, was idle but moved up one place to 10th.

Rounding out the top 15 in order were Jacksonville State, 3-0, North Dakota State, 4-1, Western Kentucky, 3-0, Northeast Louisiana, 1-0-2, and North Dakota, 2-2-0.

World Grid League Eyed By Attorney

After all, the Yankees will be spending the next two seasons there and they're looking for a manager.

World Grid League Eyed By Attorney

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gary L. Davidson, who helped start the American Basketball Association and the World Hockey Association, now has plans for an international professional football league with franchises stretching from London to Tokyo.

A source in Davidson's office said the Santa Ana attorney is organizing the worldwide pro football circuit and plans to have it working a year from now.

Initially, the league wants 12 franchises in the United States, with franchises already lined up for the Los Angeles area, Honolulu, New York, Boston, Chicago, Toronto "and maybe Europe" for the first season, said the source.

The league, as yet unnamed, also is looking to establish franchises in London, Tokyo, Germany and Mexico as well as Memphis, Tenn., Milwaukee, Phoenix, Ariz., Oklahoma City, Seattle, and North Carolina.

The new league will not try and fight the established league for players, said the source.

"The league will get its players from semipro leagues, colleges, NFL and Canadian league players who play out their options and players cut by the leagues," the source said.

The source said a formal announcement on the new league would be made near the end of October.

CHS Harriers Top Panthers

Matt McGowan set a Southeastern course record as Circleville's cross country team downed the Panthers 21-38 in a dual meet Tuesday.

McGowan toured the course in 10:16 to pace the Tiger victory. His time beat the old mark of 10:24 set by Southeastern's John Cline who placed second in the meet in 10:20.

Other places by the Tigers went to: Doug Radabaugh, third, 10:26; Steve Watters, fourth, 10:35; Robin Martin, sixth, 11:01; Bill Bruno, seventh, 11:02; Keith Stevenson, ninth, 11:12; Kirk Knecht, 10th, 11:21.

Circleville's reserve runners also downed Southeastern, 27-29, in a dual meet Tuesday.

The Shermans will be coming into the contest with a 2-2 mark after suffering a 24-12 loss last week to a tough Adena team. The Mustangs dropped an 8-0 decision to Adena in their encounter.

Unioto will move from a pro formation with a balanced attack. The Shermans have a fine quarterback in P. J. Dailey who can throw both long and short and have three top notch receivers. The running game is powered by tailback Randy Sprouse and their strong fullback, Chester.

The offensive unit of the Mustangs will be: Bill Kiser, center; Tim Lett and Tim Hegarty, guards; Walter Garland and Jim Dawson, tackles; Randy Puckett and Joe Angles, ends; Dave Shannon, quarterback; Artie Dick, fullback; Rick Gaa and Terry Hegarty, halfbacks.

Defensively, it will be: Tim Hegarty, middle guard; John Long and Dick, linebacks; Dawson and Kiser, tackles; Puckett and Randy Hildenbrand, ends; Gaa and Shannon, cornerbacks; Dave Bullock and Gary Thompson, halfbacks.

Although Pickerington has not won a game yet, Coach Bob Stant believes they are a team with a lot of potential.

They will show opposition a lot of different looks on offense and their unusual 4-5 defense is different than any the Braves have faced this year.

They pose a definite passing threat, especially from a double slot formation. This will put more pressure on the linebacks and secondary. They run from this formation enough to keep the defense honest according to Stant.

They also line up in a fullhouse T, the Wishbone T, a regular slot formation and a wing formation, using a man in motion frequently. Their best football player is Bill Belleau, a senior end and middle linebacker. Fullback Tony Stansberry, a junior, is the workhorse of the game. A lot of injuries have seriously hampered the Picktown Tigers this year.

Logan Elm has been hit by a rash of injuries and illnesses this week. Quarterback Steve Sargent has a sore elbow; guard-linebacker Brian Herron is definitely out of action with a blood clot on his thigh; Brian Barr is a doubtful starter because of a severe shoulder bruise; Brad Luckhart is also doubtful because of a groin injury that caused him to miss much of last week's game; Halfback Steve Rawlins has a blood infection which could possibly sideline him or at least curtail his action.

The Braves will use 4-4 and 6-2 defenses this week. Starters on the 4-4 tentatively are: Rawlins, left end; Mark Justus, right end with Doug Hildenbrand ready to fill in at either spot; Seth Driesbach and Marty Fullen at tackles with Mark Bower and Chris Payne ready for duty; Jeff Reichelderfer, Steve Morrison, Stew Jones and Wayne Linticum at linebacks with Dave Dean listed as a possible starter; Terry Crumley and either Wes King or Luckhart at halfbacks and either Sargent or Derek Morris at safety.

On offense, Reichelderfer is the tight end; Driesbach and Fullen the tackles, Jones and either Morrison, Dean, Hildenbrand or Pat Williams the guards, Payne at center; Sargent at quarterback; Dan Ramey at fullback, Rawlins or Crumley at halfback and Linticum at I back.

Stant named Ramey and Reichelderfer his offensive and defensive players of the game against Fairfield Union.

Although presently locked in a 4-way tie for fifth place in the Mid State standings, Coach Stant says his Braves still have a shot at the title. This week could be the turning point, depending on the outcome of the Millersport-Liberty Union and the Carroll-Canal Winchester games. Liberty Union and Canal Winchester are presently tied with Berne Union with 3-0 records at the top of the Mid State.

CHS Harriers Top Panthers

Matt McGowan set a Southeastern course record as Circleville's cross country team downed the Panthers 21-38 in a dual meet Tuesday.

McGowan toured the course in 10:16 to pace the Tiger victory. His time beat the old mark of 10:24 set by Southeastern's John Climer who placed second in the meet in 10:20.

Other places by the Tigers went to: Doug Radabaugh, third, 10:26; Steve Watters, fourth, 10:35; Robin Martin, sixth, 11:01; Bill Bruno, seventh, 11:02; Keith Stevenson, ninth, 11:12; Kirk Knecht, 10th, 11:21.

Circleville's reserve runners also downed Southeastern, 27-29, in a dual meet Tuesday.

Anderson Not Misled

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati Manager George "Sparky" Anderson waved off the New York Mets' record—worst among the four division winners in the majors—and talked of respect for this weekend's playoff opponent.

"I think people are being misled by the Mets," said Anderson.

"If that club had stayed healthy all year, they would have won at least 95 games," he said as the Reds, National League Western Division champs with baseball's best record—99-63—prepare for Saturday's opener with the Eastern Division winners.

"The Mets we're facing are healthy. They're not as destitute as they make out," Anderson said in reference to the wave of injuries which hounded the Mets all season.

He also had Mets' pitching ace Tom Seaver in mind. Seaver will reportedly not start the first game due to a shoulder problem.

New York overcame the series of setbacks with a late-season onrush to come from last place as late as Aug. 30 to win the division with an 82-79 record.

"There's no danger we'll be looking ahead," said Anderson, recalling the 1969 Mets' miracle when they charged out of obscurity to win the National League and, after dropping the World Series opener, claimed the world title with four straight victories over the Baltimore Orioles.

"We've got too much respect for them," said Anderson, who has said he'll open with 18-game winner Don Gullett Saturday. He'll oppose Jon Matlack, 15-16.

Anderson plans to match 19-game winner Jack Billingham against the Mets' Seaver on Sunday in the best-of-five series.

Pete Rose, the National League batting champ, sees the playoffs as a time for the Reds' pitchers to get some overdue credit.

"Everybody talks about the New York Mets' pitching of Seaver, Kossman and Matlack. Nobody says much about our staff yet we had a 19-game winner, an 18-game winner and two guys with 13.

"As far as I'm concerned, we've got as good a pitching staff as anyone," said the Reds' captain.

Rose said he hears talk of the mets having the momentum to stop the favored Big Red Machine.

"We've got the momentum," he retorted, pointing to the Reds' sizzling pennant drive which saw the Cincinnati club storm back to win 70 per cent of its games—60 of 86—over the last three months.

Cincinnati defeated the Mets in eight of 12 regular season meetings.

Delaware Remains On Top Of Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The University of Delaware, gunning for an unprecedented third straight national college division football championship, continues to lead the Associated Press' weekly poll.

The Blue Hens, a 21-9 winner over Lehigh last week, received 27 first-place votes and a total of 885 points from a nationwide panel of sports-writers and broadcasters. Delaware has an 18-game winning streak dating back to the 1971 season.

The Blue Hens are 4-0 this season. Grambling and South Dakota, both 4-0, held the second and third positions, each collecting seven first-place votes. The Tigers piled up 762 points after thumping Prairie View 37-12, and South Dakota got 635 points on the strength of a 19-7 triumph over Northern Iowa.

Eastern Michigan, 4-0, moved up one place to fourth after a 47-14 conquest of St. Norbert. Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo, 3-0, advanced from eighth to fifth after beating Cal-Riverside 26-17.

Hawaii, 3-0, remained sixth after slipping past Texas Southern 24-21. Tennessee State, 3-0, fell from fourth to seventh despite taking the week off.

Boise State, 3-0, was up two positions to eighth after routing Portland State 64-7. Louisiana Tech, 3-1, got by McNeese 10-7 and maintained the No. 9 spot. Carson-Newman, 3-0, was idle but moved up one place to 10th.

Rounding out the top 15 in order were Jacksonville State, 3-0, North Dakota State, 4-1, Western Kentucky, 3-0, Northeast Louisiana, 1-0-2, and North Dakota, 2-2-0.

Yogi Berra Waits For New Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — Now that he has a key to the city, the only thing Yogi Berra needs is a contract to manage a baseball team for next season.

The logical team would seem to be the New York Mets, the club Yogi has piloted to the National League East Division title. But they haven't asked him back yet.

That, of course, could be meaningless. The Mets traditionally make their managerial decisions after the season. On the other hand, it could be ominous. The last time Yogi managed a club that finished first, it was the New York Yankees in 1964. Instead of getting a new contract, he got fired. Will history repeat itself?

"I don't know yet," said Berra, allowing himself a mischievous grin. "I don't think so."

In mid-summer, when the Mets were in last place 12 games back and five teams away from the top, there was considerable sniping at the manager. Donald Grant, the club's chairman of the board, described Berra's position as secure at that time, but added a cryptic after-thought, saying that it depended on fan opinion. At that time, Yogi's rating with the customers wasn't very high.

There were times during the season that even Berra doubted the team's ability to win the title.

Injuries piled up, and for awhile, it seemed that Berra never would have a totally healthy club. When he finally did, it thundered through September at a sizzling 21-8 pace to win the title.

Ironically, the Mets' won-lost record of 82-79 is the worst they have posted in any year since they won the division, playoff and World Series in 1969.

There is one more irony. If the Mets don't invite Berra back, he could still wind up in Shea Stadium anyway.

Jan McKelvey Captures PCC Ladies Championship

Jan McKelvey won the 1973 Pickaway Country Club Ladies championship with runner-up honors going to Betty Neff.

Dottie Smith was A Flight winner with Ginnie Hritz taking second place. The B Flight title went to Ruth McFadden with Ruth Marshall runner-up.

Handicap tournament was won by

Mae Cairns with second place going to Erma Hedges. Mae Huggins won consolation prize in the handicap tournament with Jackie Moore taking second. Lucille Wilson was the ringer tournament winner and most improved lady golfer of the year was Betty Neff.

Ruth and Larry McFadden captured the family tournament with Sid and Madeline Sanders placing second.

The PCC Ladies Golf Association held its annual fall roundup with an ABCD scramble tournament and luncheon.

Betty Brian, Jan McKelvey, Bev Dahl and Mary Goldschmidt comprised the winning team. Second place went to Betty Neff, Jane Plum, Marg Porter and Linda Ferguson. Booby prizes were awarded to Phyllis Williams, Helen Jacobs, Loretta Berrigan and Jane Fath for their last place finish.

Winners of the floral arrangements, created by Loretta Berrigan, were: Pat Frericks, Edie Christy, Betty Danford, Dottie Smith, Sue Schneider and Helen Kittle.

1. Card of Thanks

The family of Leo E. Morrison wishes to express their heartfelt and sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their messages of sympathy, thoughtfulness and kindness at the time of his death, the flowers, food and other acts of kindness. To Dr. Anderson and the Veterans Hospital, Dayton for their kindness and tender care. To Rev.
David Cyrus and Defenbaugh, Wise and McCain Funeral home for their very efficient services.

The Morrison Family

Special thanks for the kindness of officer Joe Stevenson, also kindness shown to the parents and ones that were all so helpful. Roger is still in critical condition at Doctors west
Grace Hill and Family

I wish to thank all my friends and relatives for the cards, flowers and visits while I was a patient in Grant Hospital.

CARROLL RICHTER'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A very difficult day which requires much care to prevent disorganization and lack of poise. Refrain from making any comments that could upset others with whom you must have dealing. Avoid taking any unnecessary risks.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Take care you don't spoil your reputation by unwise actions today or it could cost you a great deal. Make sure all bills are paid. Evening is ideal for the romantic side of life.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Be certain to get your facts and figures straight before you get into a new deal. Steer clear of a flashy new comer who could get you into trouble. Strive more harmony at home.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Show that you are conscientious in the handling of your obligations. Smile if mate tries to get you upset. Talk with business experts if you are in doubt about anything. Be calm.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) An associate may be displeased with the progress being made, so try to be more cooperative instead of criticizing so much. Keep alert or an opponent gets the best of you.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You have to use care in motion at all times today if you wish to attain your immediate goals. Take better care of your health. Listen to a good friend's advice. Relax at home tonight.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) It's all right to have a good time but be careful it isn't too costly. Exercise patience with the one you love. Take steps to improve your appearance. Dress in good taste.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You have to use kindness at home or you are apt to stir up a hornet's nest. Quietly rid yourself of whatever is causing unrest. Sidestep one who is looking for trouble.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) If you do anything foolish now, you could upset harmony that now exists at home. Travel with utmost care. Do something very nice for mate tonight and come to a better understanding.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Be sure you don't commit yourself too heavily or you could regret it. Don't follow a hunch you have at this time since it apt to be erroneous. Get yourself in good physical condition.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Don't sever connections with others just because you are not feeling up to par at this time. Give more encouragement to good friends. Avoid a situation that could lead to trouble.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Sit down in the quiet of your study and think over any problems you may have and come up with the right answers. Try to help others more. Avoid one who gossips too much. Be cheerful.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Meet with good friends and plan new interests that will be mutually beneficial. Steer clear of the social tonight where arguments could occur. Take more interest in civic matters.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will be one of those young people who wants to bully others if given an opportunity. Teach to use energy constructively. Direct the education along governmental lines. Give the proper kind of discipline early in life. Sports here can be very fine. Musical education should also be given.

NEW YORK (AP) — NBC's latest contributions to television law and order, "The Magician" and "Police Story," got underway last night. The first was a bad fantasy in need of a magic wand the size of a baseball bat.

But "Police Story," created by Sgt. Joseph Wambaugh of the Los Angeles Police Department, was an entirely different matter. It was that rarest of all television birds—a good, solid cop show.

I don't know if it's because Wambaugh is story consultant on the series, but the show omitted two things that are standard gear on most police shows—frequent gunfire and 90-mile-an-hour chase scenes.

If this keeps up, other television writers may accuse Wambaugh of pandering to grass realism.

The opening "Police Story" rolled out a crisp, few-punches-pulled yarn about a black pimp named Snake McKay and his profitable stable of prostitutes in Los Angeles.

James Farentino starred—the series has no regular cast—as an undercover cop assigned to get the goods on Snake, played to oily, double-crossing, jivertalking perfection by Fred Williamson.

In the show, Farentino poses as a pimp who needs six beauties from McKay's stable for a deal in Hawaii and Japan. And he meets Snake's top aide and house madam, portrayed by Elizabeth Ashley.

He gives her a big, con-artist rush, only to find himself attracted to her and she to him. Which makes it a bit sticky, since his off-duty hours are spent with a divorcee (Janet Margolin) who wants marriage.

This also could have proved a bit sticky in the dialogue department, but the scenes worked reasonably well—each a nicely etched, bittersweet vignette about the emotional conflicts of being a cop.

It was a well-acted, fast-moving show and seems off to a fine start. The exact opposite is true of "The Magician," which preceded "Police Story" and wasted the talents of Bill Bixby, cast as a prestidigitator who hates injustice.

He should have thrown a rabbit at the author of last night's mess, which concerned a crusading columnist's attempt to expose the gambling operation of a crime syndicate in California.

The show also introduced three regulars. They were (a) the crusading columnist; (b) the columnist's crippled son, who is confined to a wheel chair; and (c) the pilot of the magician's Boeing 707 jetliner, which transports the magician around and about.

The names of these regulars are being withheld to protect the innocent, which is them.

County Blood Donations Stand At 93 Per Cent Of Quota

A total of 125 persons registered to give blood Tuesday during the regular visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile to Circleville but only 118 units of blood were collected. This is 17 less than the day's quota. Pickaway County currently stands at 93 per cent of its quota for 1973.

Blood program officials expressed appreciation for the excellent cooperation of the community in making appointments. It made the flow of donors more even and shortened the waiting periods for everyone, they said.

The next visit is scheduled for November 19.

Red Cross volunteers who provided the food service and registered the donors were:

Mrs. C. P. Pfeleger, Mrs. Boyd Stout, Mrs. Robert Dahl, Mrs. Cyril Stickel, Mrs. William Stout, Mrs. Don Miller, Miss Mary Howard, Mrs. Dudley Carpenter, Mrs. Herman Will, Mrs. Lewis Dean, Mrs. W. W. Story, Mrs. Charles Walker, Mrs. Ben Brian, Mrs. Edward Hutchinson, Mrs. C. S. Dille, Mrs. Howard Huston, Mrs. Jerry Wolford, Mrs. Walter Heine and Mrs. Harry Welch.

Nurses on duty were Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Bill Ottinger, Mrs. Charles Walters, Mrs. Arthur Bowman, Mrs. Hugh Neff, Mrs. Michael Fields, Mrs. William Camp, Mrs. Karen McKibben, Mrs. Dick Robinson, Mrs. William Gardner and Mrs. Medford Good.

Doctors on duty were E. L. Montgomery, William A. Myers, Robert G. Smith, H. H. Swope, Carlos Alvarez, J. M. Hedges.

High school students assisting with loading and unloading equipment were John Ankrom, Tim Wilkinson, Wade Camp and Eddie Richter. Boy Scouts from Troop 52 assisting included Jim Heacock, Tom Farynowski, Jerry Yeatts, Richey West, Tim Tener, Steven Davis and Eric Johnson.

Red Cross Youth assisting with the collection were Leslie Pettit, Jan Jacobs and Theresa Imier. Ed Ebert donated ice. Multiple gallon donors were: Robert Wilson, 10; Dorothy Hewitt, four; Luella Lapel Lee Smith, three; Dale Boone, Jack Betts, two; William Gould, Melvin Ehrlich, one.

County Blood Donations Stand At 93 Per Cent Of Quota

A total of 125 persons registered to give blood Tuesday during the regular visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile to Circleville but only 118 units of blood were collected. This is 17 less than the day's quota. Pickaway County currently stands at 93 per cent of its quota for 1973.

Blood program officials expressed appreciation for the excellent cooperation of the community in making appointments. It made the flow of donors more even and shortened the waiting periods for everyone, they said.

The next visit is scheduled for November 19.

Red Cross volunteers who provided the food service and registered the donors were:

Mrs. C. P. Pfeleger, Mrs. Boyd Stout, Mrs. Robert Dahl, Mrs. Cyril Stickel, Mrs. William Stout, Mrs. Don Miller, Miss Mary Howard, Mrs. Dudley Carpenter, Mrs. Herman Will, Mrs. Lewis Dean, Mrs. W. W. Story, Mrs. Charles Walker, Mrs. Ben Brian, Mrs. Edward Hutchinson, Mrs. C. S. Dille, Mrs. Howard Huston, Mrs. Jerry Wolford, Mrs. Walter Heine and Mrs. Harry Welch.

Nurses on duty were Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Bill Ottinger, Mrs. Charles Walters, Mrs. Arthur Bowman, Mrs. Hugh Neff, Mrs. Michael Fields, Mrs. William Camp, Mrs. Karen McKibben, Mrs. Dick Robinson, Mrs. William Gardner and Mrs. Medford Good.

Doctors on duty were E. L. Montgomery, William A. Myers, Robert G. Smith, H. H. Swope, Carlos Alvarez, J. M. Hedges.

High school students assisting with loading and unloading equipment were John Ankrom, Tim Wilkinson, Wade Camp and Eddie Richter. Boy Scouts from Troop 52 assisting included Jim Heacock, Tom Farynowski, Jerry Yeatts, Richey West, Tim Tener, Steven Davis and Eric Johnson.

Red Cross Youth assisting with the collection were Leslie Pettit, Jan Jacobs and Theresa Imler. Ed Ebert donated ice. Multiple gallon donors were: Robert Wilson, 10; Dorothy Hewitt, four; Luella Lapel Lee Smith, George Bowers Jr., Donald Metzler, three; Dale Boone, Jack Betts, two; William Gould, Melvin Ehrlich, one.

Records In Steel Production And Shipment Certain

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Records already are assured in steel production and shipments as the steel companies head into the final three months of the year, Industry Week magazine said Monday.

However, it added there is a growing possibility that there will be less steel available than the companies had hoped.

"That's not good for steel users, who have been caught in a steel supply pinch for much of the year," the magazine said. "The tonnage involved is, of course, already committed. Confronted with this year's unprecedented demand, steelmakers have been allocating shipments and limiting forward ordering to three months for some time."

Industry Week said the immediate question, and concern by steelmakers and their customers, is whether the steel companies can regain and maintain the raw steel output rate of earlier this year.

"The industry had hoped to ship at least 108 million tons of the finished product this year, some 14 million tons above the 1969 record," the magazine said.

It added that this total is based on raw steel production averaging 2.9 million tons a week or more for the remainder of the year. This rate was achieved from February through June, but in July and August production most weeks was under 2.8 million tons.

Industry Week estimated production last week at 2,832,000 tons compared with 2,848,000 tons the previous week.

The magazine's price composite on No. 1 heavy melting steelmaking scrap rose 33 cents last week to $59.33 per gross ton.

Actress Attends Red China Party

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Actress Shirley MacLaine was one of an estimated 900 persons who attended a reception at the Chinese mission to celebrate the 24th anniversary of the People's Republic of China.

Miss MacLaine visited China for six weeks last spring.

Soviet Ambassador Jacob Malik also attended the Monday night reception.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Some Republicans gripped that majority Democrats killed their bills by bottling them up in the House Reference Committee.

Not that the Republicans didn't do the same when they controlled the House, but a total of 289 measures never saw the light of day after reaching the committee headed by Rep. Claude M. FioCCA, D-40 Akron.

That is the total for members of both

Manhunt On For Fugitive

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Sheriffs' deputies from three counties sought today a convicted car thief who fled into the woods near Ohio 7 in Tupper's Plains and eluded searchers during a six-hour manhunt.

The FBI in Athens said Gerald G. Nolan, 43, was sought on a warrant issued in July by the U.S. Parole Board.

Nolan was spotted about 3 p.m. after he apparently tried to contact relatives near Tupper's Plains, the FBI said.

More than 15 sheriff's deputies from Washington, Athens and Meigs counties joined police from Middleport, Athens and Pomeroy and the FBI in searching the woods for the fugitive.

The search was called off at 9 p.m. because of darkness, the FBI said.

Nolan had been paroled from the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary where he was serving a five-year term for transporting a stolen car across state lines, the FBI said.

Subject: Purchase of School Buses

For: The Board of Education of the Westfall Local School District, Williamsport, Ohio 43164

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Education of the Westfall Local School District of Williamsport, Ohio at the Board of Education office until 12:00 noon on October 5, 1973, and at that time opened by the clerk of said board as provided by law for four (4) 66 passenger school buses, according to specifications of said board of education. Separate and independent bids will be received with respect to the chassis and body type, and will state that the buses when assembled and prior to delivery, comply with all school district specifications, all safety regulations and current Ohio Minimum Standards for School Bus Construction of the Department of Education adopted by and with the consent of the Director of Highway Safety and all other pertinent provisions of law.

Each bid must be accompanied by a bid bond or certified check drawn upon a bank made payable to the Clerk-Treasurer of the Westfall Board of Education, in an amount equal to five (5) per cent of the total bid. All bids must remain firm for a period of ninety days from October 5, 1973. The board reserves the right to refuse any and all bids. Specifications and instructions to bidders are on file in the office of the Clerk-Treasurer, Williamsport, Ohio.

parties, but the axe fell the heaviest on GOP members and on five in particular who lost a combined total of 74 bills.

Rep. Robert E. Levitt, R-70 Canton, one of the most outspoken critics of the Democratic leadership, had 26 bills die in the Reference Committee. He led the field easily.

Rep. Robert E. Netzley, R-81 Laura, who led last year's unsuccessful fight to repeal the state income tax, lost 18, while Reps. Alan E. Norris, R-27 Westerville, lost 11, Gene Damschroder, R-85 Fremont, 10 and Norman A. Murdock, R-21 Cincinnati, 9.

Seldom does a Reference Committee act favorably upon and assign all bills to standing committees for hearings. It acts as a screening body, and can scrap proposals it considers to have been offered as a publicity gesture or perhaps for obvious political purposes.

Whether or not it was by design, Netzley got a lot of attention when he offered a bill that would require Statehouse newsmen to pass an examination on finances before being allowed use of the capitol pressroom. Mail came from several states, he said, "most of it favorable."

The Reference Committee also tucked away a pair of bills by freshman Damschroder, who may be the most conservative member of the House with the possible exception of Netzley.

Damschroder proposed in his bills to alleviate the welfare problem by requiring the sterilization of men who refuse to support their families and do the same to women on welfare roles who have more than two illegitimate children.

A total of 1,002 measures was introduced in the House, with FioCCA's committee sending 719 on their way through the legislative process. Among those and 412 introduced in the Senate, only 210 passed both houses and went to the desk of Gov. John J. Gilligan.

OUTLOOK FOR OCTOBER—This is the 30-day precipitation and temperature outlook according to the National Weather Service.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Why People Smoke

DEAR ABBY: My wife said she saw a grown woman walking down the street with a pacifier in her mouth! I said she must have been trying to quit smoking, otherwise she'd feel too silly to go out in public that way.

My wife and I were both heavy smokers, but we recently gave it up because we wanted to experience the joy of breathing through clean lungs again and rediscover our senses of taste and smell.

I said I could understand that woman's walking around with a pacifier in her mouth. She was replacing one bad habit with one that was less damaging.

Abby, why do you think people smoke? Is it a nervous habit? Is it an infantile compulsion to have something in their mouths to comfort them? Or is it simply an unconscious death wish?

QUIT IN CLARKSBURG

DEAR QUIT: Most young people begin to smoke because they think it makes them look "grown up" or smart, or to emulate someone they admire. Some smoke to keep another smoker company. They continue to smoke because they "enjoy" the feeling of relaxation it gives them (at first) and many say it keeps their weight down. Then they become addicted. (Nicotine is habit-forming, and don't let anyone tell you it isn't.) The "unconscious-death-wish theory" is also valid. Anyone who persists in doing that which he knows could be his undoing is unconsciously hastening his end.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are both retired. We've been married for three years. It's his second marriage, and mine, too. He is good to me in every way. We enjoy having company, but my friends are not used to swearing, and neither am I.

If someone says: "Isn't it a lovely day?" he says: "You're g-d right it is!"

He greets people with, "Well, I'm a s.o.b., if it isn't George!"

Abby, I deplore that kind of language, and I've told him about it, but to no avail. I don't want to nag him because it wouldn't do any good, and would only make him irritable. I am so embarrassed before my friends.

He reads your column. Maybe you can say something to make him more careful. If it weren't for this one fault, he would be perfect. And I do adore him.

ASHAMED

DEAR ASHAMED: My advice to you is gently to tell this otherwise perfect man to watch his language. Nobody's perfect, and much as I dislike cursing, there are worse faults.

DEAR ABBY: After 23 years, my wife and I agreed to a friendly divorce.

I have long owned a choice corner lot which is convenient to my work. It happens to be right next door to a long-time friend of my ex-wife.

I am planning to build a home there, but I have run into a slight problem. Rumors are circulating through my soon to be new neighborhood about the "wild parties" I'll be having, etc., so I have made some minor changes in my house, eliminating ALL windows on the side of the house facing the neighbors.

Do you think I'm making a mistake?

PERPLEXED IN OHIO

DEAR PERPLEXED: Possibly. Eliminating the windows might create the impression that you've something to hide. Also, on the practical side, consider what it might do to the resale value.

NEW YORK (AP) — Someone went up to Althea Gibson, the tennis great, in Harlem where she grew up and has just returned to introduce tennis to youngsters as director of a mobile tennis program. The man asked her, "Weren't you Althea Gibson?"

Miss Gibson looked at the man and laughed, "I still am!"

LIFE AGENCY OPPORTUNITY

Our client, a distinguished, well-known, progressive life, health, accident and casualty insurance company (non New York), in business well over 75 years with a broad (par and non par) life, health, accident, group, mutual fund and equity sales program, plus a competitive portfolio that includes hospitalization, disability income, non-cancellable, renewable and commercial A&H, variable annuities, pension, business insurance, mass-marketing products as well as products of an affiliate company, contemplates immediate expansion of its agency program in the greater Circleville and surrounding area. If you are one of the intelligent, enterprising life insurance professionals who aspires to the freedom, independence and financial rewards of his own life, health and accident insurance agency (or already have one) but would like the rewards of a more competitive product line with a broader commission base, think that (with adequate financial help) you can handle, stimulate and build a productive life agency, then our client would be interested in talking to you. Rewarding G.A. contract with above-average commissions, overrides, bonuses, vested renewals, pension and other fringe benefits, plus liberal (non-repayable) financial subsidy for income, office rent, expenses, etc.

This is an excellent opportunity with a well regarded company. Our fee is paid by the client firm. Interested parties are invited to submit a resume or letter (in strict confidence) giving complete background, including experience, previous affiliation, earnings, etc. TO:

Appalachian Panel's Future Cloudy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 13-state Appalachian Regional Commission — giver of more than $100 million to 28 rural Ohio counties — meets in Columbus this December to answer an important question:

Madame Chiang Sets Visit To America

TAIPEI (AP) — Madame Chiang Kai-shek has left her home for a brief visit to New York, the China News Agency said today.

The report said the First Lady of Nationalist China will visit her sister, Madame H.H. Kung, who is hospitalized in New York.

Should the 10-year-old organization continue?

"Two issues are presently in the forefront," said Troy Grigsby of the Ohio Department of Economic and Community Development. "The present authority expires at the end of fiscal 1975, June 30, 1975.

"And, there are questions whether the commission should continue and if it should continue in the present form."

Gov. John J. Gilligan, cochairman of the commission, will be host. Don Whitehead is full-time federal chairman. No dates for the meeting have been set.

Twenty-eight counties from Clermont in the southwest to Carroll in the northeast compose the Ohio Appalachian Region, an area with more than one million residents.

Between 1966, when the commission began to roll, and 1972, more than $94 million federal money poured into Ohio's Appalachia. Highways got $44 million, health $20 million, vocational education $11, water and sewer systems $4, conservation including strip mine reclamation $3, access roads $3, education $2.8 million and child development $1 million, with lesser amounts going to libraries, airports and housing.

During the present fiscal year, the commission has funneled about $8 million in nonhighway funds to the area. The region also has a six-year $15 million appropriation for highways.

The twelve other states in the commission are New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Virginia, Kentucky, Maryland, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi.

Grigsby said there is a distinct possibility the commission will go out of existence in 1975. The commission was to have been disbanded this year, but President Nixon compromised an earlier stand and gave the panel a two-year extension.

Nixon had hoped that special revenue sharing programs, like the Better Communities Act, would replace numerous regional commissions. His special revenue sharing proposals are presently bogged down in Congress.

Grigsby said, "The commission facilitates the expression of views and provides a forum where the states can work with one another. It's not a perfect system, but it shouldn't be junked."

He said he agrees with President Nixon federal programs shouldn't be duplicated, but added, "You don't kill off everything and start from scratch."

Reds Test Atom Bomb

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission has reported receiving seismic signals it says evidently originated from a Soviet underground nuclear explosion early Sunday.

The agency said the signals, recorded about 1 a.m. EDT, were equivalent to those of an underground nuclear explosion in the range of 20,000 to 800,000 tons of T.N.T.

The presumed test blast was the second within four days and the fourth in September, including a positively identified major test with an explosive force equal to between three million and six million tons of T.N.T., said the AEC.

Wage and salary rates rose about 7 per cent in 1972, and food prices went up about 6 per cent.

Woman Heads Cook County Hospital; Leading Pediatrician

CHICAGO (AP) — Rowine Hayes Brown won't change her hours much because of her appointment as medical director of the huge Cook County Hospital.

Each day, Dr. Brown, 60, gets up at 4:55 a.m. in her Hyde Park apartment and 35 minutes later she arrives at Cook County Hospital, where her appointment to head the medical staff makes her the only woman in the nation heading the staff of a major hospital.

After taking on her new duties, she continues seeing the small patients of County Children's Hospital, the foundation of her life for nearly 30 years.

Dr. Brown is a pediatrician and a crusader against lead poisoning and child abuse.

Other pediatricians consult with her at all hours of the day or night for

All The World Loves A Beauty

VIENNA (AP) — Month after month, increasing numbers of tourists are flocking to Vienna, which is considered one of the world's most beautiful cities. Statistics just published by the Press and Information Service of the Austrian capital indicate that the number of overnight stops by foreign guests in April 1973 was 14.7 per cent above the figure for April of last year.

A total of 279,000 people from other countries stayed in Vienna last April compared with 243,943 in April 1972.

Sorry, Fatty, You're Stuck

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fatties who spend hours and days and weeks bicycling in place, doing pushups, lifting weights and sitting in steam baths in hopes of achieving the "Twiggy" look may be wasting their time. Same for skinny people who eat and eat in anticipation of being "pleasingly plump."

They may be permanently the way they are for the very good reason that they're supposed to be, according to Dr. Myron Winick of Columbia University's Institute of Human Nutrition. Speaking to a nutrition seminar Monday, Winick said doctors have long recognized two kinds of fat people: Those who can lose weight and maintain their new slim look and those who, while they may have lost weight on a strict diet, "zoomed right back up."

He said this is because they developed a certain number of fat cells during their formative years and now they're stuck with them.

"It's often hard to get back to sleep after something like that," she said. Because many of her patients were victims of criminal acts, Dr. Brown decided she needed background in the law. She earned her law degree in 1961, attending classes at night and running Children's Hospital by day.

She only has time to read things like pediatric news or laws on health benefits. Movies? "I seldom have time to go. I used to go to the symphony, but I don't do that too often. I get up so early that I have to fold early..."

"I'm like a fireman, I always have my clothes ready the night before so I can get dressed fast, get out of the building fast."

Mrs. Marie Gibson and Mrs. Leona Gibson spent the day Thursday at the home of Mrs. Una Maxwell near Londonderry.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kelley were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kelley and sons in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Boggs enjoyed a two week fishing trip and vacation that took them into Ontario and around the Gaspé Peninsula. Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Boggs who recently moved into one of the L. E. Hill houses on Ing Street, accompanied them as far as Port Loring.

Mrs. Donald Beavers entertained her Bingo Club last Wednesday night and prizes were won by Mrs. Donald Carroll, Mrs. Tom Snyder, Mrs. Irwin Dresbach and Mrs. Ed Evans. Also playing were Mrs. Bill Moss, Mrs. John Carroll, Mrs. Tom Congrove, Mrs. Larry Large and Mrs. Ronald Leadingham. Mrs. Harold Wright is the October hostess.

The Kingston American Legion presented an American flag to the Zane Trace Boosters Club for their use at the football games. The Legion also named the date for the annual turkey supper, Nov. 1, and announced another fish fry for Saturday at the Legion Home on Main St., 10 a.m.-6 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eisenman and daughter Kim, of Columbus were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brooks and son Joe Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meadows got home last Friday from a four week visit with their son and daughter-in-law, 2nd Lt. and Mrs. Robert Meadows and daughter, Gracie in Karlsruhe, West Germany, where Bob is in the Quartermaster Corp. In addition to Germany, they went to Switzerland, Belgium, Holland and Austria.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Courtright and son Aaron spent Sunday at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Guy Courtright, near Ashville. The occasion was his father's birthday.

Mrs. Glenn Ross, Mrs. Lawrence Betz and Mrs. Irwin Dresbach of Kingston, Mrs. William Beavers of Chillicothe and Mrs. Donald Dearth, Route 2, had a picnic dinner Monday at the home of Mrs. Robbie Roll to celebrate her birthday. Mrs. Bill Roll was an afternoon caller.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis and children of Westerville, spent Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Search Jr. and sons, Tim and Joe. Mr. Search and Tim, Mr. Lewis and Mr. Paul McDonald attended the Cincinnati Reds baseball game Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Ed Flaspohlet and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Huelsman of Cincinnati, were Saturday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Search Sr. on Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Search of Columbus visited his parents before leaving for Marysville, Calif. to see their new grandchild.

Miss Sharon Goldsberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Goldsberry, a 1973 graduate of Zane Trace High School and Miss Ross County, has started her freshman year at Morehead State University, Morehead, Ky. where she is majoring in education. Sharon is also the first girl at her school to enroll in the ROTC there.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Search and children have rented the Brown apartment at Main and Pickaway Sts. and moved their household goods from Plattsburg, N. Y. where Michael was serving in the Air Force.

On the outskirts of town stood an old open-air theater, abandoned for years. The owner of the property, resentful of occasional trespassers, decided to get tough. He placed a small bomb under the stage, connecting it to a nearby door.

Sure enough, a few days later a youthful intruder opened the door, set off the bomb, and suffered fatal injuries.

Could the property owner be held legally liable for this tragedy? At a court hearing, he insisted he had the right to safeguard his property against any unlawful intrusion.

However, a court held him responsible for the young man's death.

"It is no defense," said the court, "that (the victim) was a trespasser. While the law authorizes an owner to protect his property by reasonable means, considerations of humanity preclude him from setting traps dangerous to the life and limb of those whose presence may be anticipated, even though they may be trespassers."

On the other hand, less drastic measures against trespassers have usually been upheld. One case involved a barbed-wire fence which a home owner put up to stop pedestrians from taking short cuts across his front lawn. This time, when an injured trespasser claimed damages, the court turned him down. The judge said the wire obstacle, in plain sight, was a reasonable way for the owner to protect his lawn.

Of course, the right to use force is greater when there is menace not only to property but also to people. Accordingly, most courts have sanctioned the use of deadly force, if necessary, against burglars breaking into a home. As one judge put it:

"The idea that a man's house is his castle is not that it is his property. The sense in which the house has a peculiar immunity is that it is sacred for the protection of his person and his family."

City May 'Buy' Goodyear Hangar

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Akron city officials hope to make a "one dollar" deal to lease or buy the Goodyear Aerospace Corp.'s huge air ship hangar near the Rubber Bowl.

Councilman Anthony Cardarelli said legislation will be presented to City Council today proposing acquisition of the space for recreation or possible athletic use. "If we purchase it, we would be looking at paying one dollar," he said.

The hangar, which is 1,175 feet long and 325 feet wide, once was used for making dirigibles and recently has been used for storage.

Lucasville Chief Ponders Future

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The new chief of the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility at Lucasville plans no immediate "shakedown" but will act as a peacemaker "if peace needs to be made."

Joseph H. Havener, 55, gave that word Monday to state capitol newsmen in his first day on the job as acting superintendent of the beleaguered maximum correctional facility.

Havener, a retired veteran of 25 years in the field of correction said he wants to meet first "with every shift of the guards" and sound them out on problems at the institution.

"There will be no shakedown, that would be grandstanding," Havener said. He appeared at a news conference with Corrections Chief Bennett J. Cooper, and said the two of them seem to have "about the same philosophy" about prison administration.

He said he thinks prisoners need to be treated "as human beings" and that he believes training, motivation, and communications with the prison staff is the best way to see that they get that kind of treatment.

Cooper said Havener, who was for more than 20 years an administrator of the federal prison system in Washington, D.C., would, within certain "limitations", be given a free hand to run the Lucasville site. The director described Havener as "level headed and pragmatic."

Responding to various questions, the new superintendent said he believes prison labor unions—such as one recently formed for prison guards and certain other personnel—are "rather impractical."

He said they raise a question as to whom they should negotiate with. For instance, he said, "if they negotiate with me, the money still has to come from the legislature. It just seems rather impractical."

The new superintendent said he is 90 per cent against capital punishment, but feels there are cases in which it should be applied for "extremely serious crimes." But he added "if it's part of my job, I'll do it, but not with any great relish."

In response to another question, Havener said he sees as one of his "very big problems" the job of recruiting more black guards to try to balance the staff with the predominantly black Lucasville population.

1040 U.S. Income Tax Return Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

(Q) Is it true when it comes to claiming the child of divorced parents, the parent who has custody usually is entitled to the dependency exemption?

(A) If the parents furnish more than half the child's support for the year, the general rule is that the parent who has custody of the child for the greater part of the year is entitled to the dependency exemption.

However, there are two exceptions to this rule. The parent not having custody may be entitled to the exemption: (1) that parent contributed at least $600 toward the child's support during the year, and the decree of divorce or separate maintenance, or a written agreement between the parties, specifies that the parent not having custody is entitled to the exemption; or (2) that parent provided $1,200 or more of support for the child for the year and the parent having custody does not clearly establish having contributed more support than the parent not having custody.

(Q) My employer pays the premiums on my group-term life insurance policy. Coverage is $25,000. Do I have to include the cost of the premiums as income on my tax return?

(A) No. The cost of group-term life insurance coverage of $50,000 or less provided to an employee under a policy carried by his employer does not have to be reported as income.

(Q) I purchased contact lenses from an optometrist. Can I deduct the cost of the lenses as a medical expense?

(A) Yes. Payments for such glasses are deductible as a medical expense if you itemize your deductions. Remember that medical expenses are deductible only to the extent they exceed three percent of your adjusted gross income.

(Q) While cleaning out my desk, I came across the contract, bills and other documents relating to the remodeling job I had done on my kitchen several years ago. Can I throw these papers away or are they still important for tax reasons?

(A) In the event you ever sell your home, the basis of the property (generally what it cost the taxpayer), increased by the cost of the improvements to the house, will have to be computed in order to figure out your gain or loss. Thus, such records should be kept indefinitely.

Soviet Police Quell Protest

MOSCOW (AP) — Shouting Soviet police charged into a Jewish demonstration here today, ripped apart the protesters' placards and placed 10 Moscow Jews under arrest.

The demonstration—the third protest here against the Kremlin's emigration policies in the last 10 days—took place as U.S. Treasury Secretary George P. Shultz opened his second day of talks here on the Soviet-American trade agreement that has been stalled in Congress over Moscow's treatment of would be emigrants.

It also coincided with a trip to Vienna, Austria, by Israeli Premier Golda Meir to ask the Austrian government to repudiate its pledge to close down a Vienna transit camp for emigrating Soviet Jews.

Seize Marijuana In Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Police using $48,000 in cash as bait have arrested four persons and confiscated an estimated 150 pounds of marijuana.

Arrested on drug charges here Monday night were Fernando Sanchez, 27, of Defiance, Fernando Villagomez, 35, of Holgate, Dora Mae Cox, 23 of Jackson and Consuelo Villagomez of Holgate.

Officers said the marijuana was found in the trunk of the Villagomez car.

They said undercover agents had made arrangements with Sanchez the day before to buy 200 pounds of marijuana for $48,000.

OYC Fund Transfer Rejected

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Controlling Board Monday rejected a $763,123 transfer request from the Ohio Youth Commission, which granted the unused money for its new Indian River School.

The legislative-controlled board, watchdog of state spending, meanwhile allotted more than $1.8 million for various university improvement and construction projects. About $1.5 million went to Ohio State University.

The Youth Commission request was disallowed by a 5 to 1 vote. Board Chairman Joel Taylor, the administration's representative, cast the only negative vote.

Sen. Howard C. Cook, R-1 Toledo, complained the commission was seeking to wipe out cuts the legislature made in its 1973-75 fiscal year budget.

The board did approve another Youth Commission request, granting $198,217 for buying equipment for the Indian River facility.

Ohio State got $442,004 for equipment and architect fees for the 13th building in its University College building program.

Improvements Noted In Lake Erie Waters

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Ira L. Whitman, director of the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency, says efforts to make Lake Erie safe for swimming are beginning to pay off.

Whitman told a session of the 46th annual Water Pollution Control Federation conference Monday that "definite improvements" have been shown in samples taken from beaches.

He said he thinks prisoners need to be treated "as human beings" and that he believes training, motivation, and communications with the prison staff is the best way to see that they get that kind of treatment.

Cooper said Havener, who was for more than 20 years an administrator of the federal prison system in Washington, D.C., would, within certain "limitations", be given a free hand to run the Lucasville site. The director described Havener as "level headed and pragmatic."
